WENTZEL — EASTMAN

A very pretty church wedding was celebrated in the Congregational Church of LaGrange Monday afternoon, November 22nd, when Miss Marguerite Wentzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wentzel, was married to Mr. Rex Eastman of the Grove. The Rev. Arthur E. Leonard, pastor of the church, read the beautiful lines which made them man and wife.

The bride, gowned in white satin, with a tulle veil ornaled with orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet, was attended by Miss Irene Roth of Brookfield as Maid of Honor and the Misses Maude South of Chicago, and Marjorie Shepherd of Aurora, as Bridesmaids. They wore ivory satin trimmed with point lace and carried bouquets of Kilmarey roses and sweet peas.

The groomsmen were Donald Eastman, a brother of the groom.

Many relatives and friends were present at the church and attended the reception at the home of the bride, 345 North Stone avenue, following the ceremony. The color scheme in the decorations was yellow and white, city-anthemiums being used.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Eastman departed on their honeymoon which will be spent in Cuba going there by way of New Orleans.

Richards—Kettenring

Miss Winnifred Richards of Chicago, formerly of the Grove, and Mr. Fred W. Kettenring, were married Saturday afternoon, November 20th, at two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Gustin at 1443 Cuyler ave. The bride was attired in a dark blue tulle dress and wore a lavender corsage bouquet of lavender sweet peas with a pink rose in the center.

The witnesses were, Miss Madge Kettenring and D. A. Richardson of Chicago. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal pair left for Milwaukee to spend the week end.

The guests were the immediate members of the families, Miss Katie Lee Bowman of Chicago, and Mr. Fay Hinchman of the Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Kettenring are at home to their many friends at 2700 Forest Avenue.

Should she shoot?

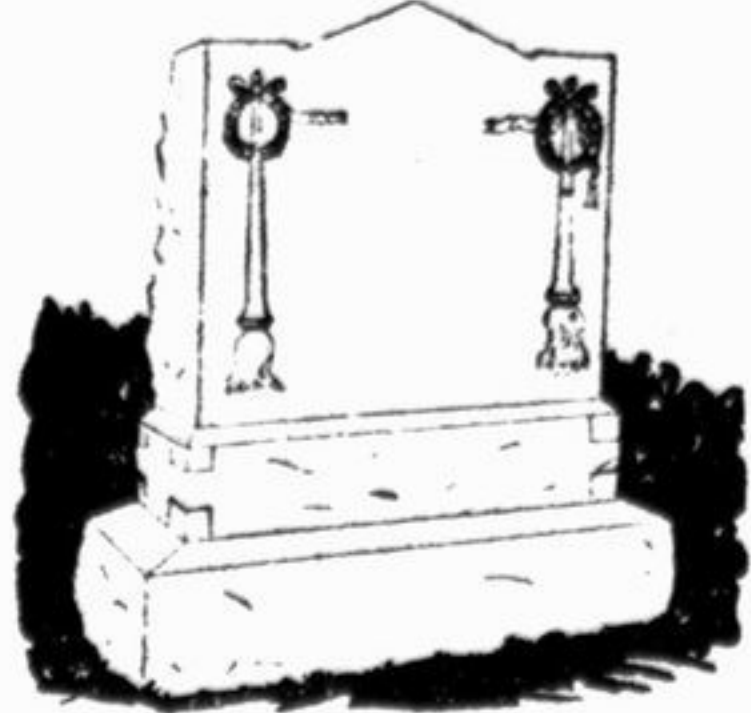

If you are a woman what would you do if you had been tricked into a false position, deserted by friends and the man who promised to marry you? If your loved son was about to kill your tormentor — what would you do? This question is answered by Madlaine Traverse in one of the most thrilling photoplays of the season, "The Tattlers," a William Fox production which will be shown at this theatre on Tuesday, November 30th.

Here's a Suggestion!

Since a good way to keep well in winter is to dodge the cold, wet weather, by seeking the glorious sunshine and semi-tropical atmosphere of California, where you can enjoy out-door recreation all winter long, amidst the flowers and orange blossoms beside the blue Pacific, hadn't you better plan to go?

'Twill do you a world of good. If your neighbor has been there, ask him—he knows.

A delightful way of getting there is by way of the daylight-scenic route—through Colorado (Denver, Colorado Springs, the Royal Gorge) and Salt Lake City. Costs no more, takes a little longer, but there is so much more to see.

Come in and let me explain our service to you. All-year excursion tickets, carrying attractive stop-over and diverse route privileges on sale now. You can avoid possible disappointment by making reservations well in advance.
