

PERSONALS

If you needus, fonus, 188-J.

Coming—"The Restless Sex." adv.

Little Lois Henderson is ill with scarlet fever.

Mrs. O. H. Snyder of Oakwood ave. was hostess to the Shakespeare Class on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins are entertaining Mrs. Jenkins' parents from Ohio.

Don't forget that the Dicke Theatre shows a two-reel comedy every Saturday.

Miss Miriam Sampson of Galena, Ill., has returned from her holiday vacation.

Have your contribution ready next week when the solicitors call and ask you to help save a life.

Music, both vocal and instrumental, dancing, magic and fun of all kinds, at the Curtiss Theatre tonight. adv.

Miss Jean Parker of New York, has been visiting Mrs. Paul Herring this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wander and family, visited at the Gansberg home here a few days this week.

Dorothy Dalton made the picture, "Half An Hour," while playing "Aphrodite" in New York.

Miss Maurine Marseilles of Chicago, spent the week end with Miss Elma Kelly.

Mrs. N. C. Pearee is able to be around again after a fall downstairs last week.

A full line of the celebrated INDU cosmetics for sale at Marion Dexter's Art Kraft Shop, one door south of the Ross Bakery. adv. tf.

Mrs. L. B. Wells has returned from California where she visited her son Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Meacham and son have moved into their new home they recently built on Saratoga avenue.

I have for sale several uncalled for suits and overcoats. They are bargains, better look at them. J. Mazza. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Motsett entertained their daughter and family from Chicago, for the week end.

The Dramatic Club will hold its regular meeting in St. Joseph's Church Hall, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Don't forget the matinee at the Curtiss Theatre Sunday. Douglas MacLean and Doris May in "The Jailbird," is the attraction. adv.

Mr. Val. Wander and son, Carl, returned from their hunting trip in Nebraska last week with a fine bag of "bunnies" and jackrabbits.

Mrs. W. F. Devereaux is confined to her home from an injury sustained when she fell on the slippery sidewalk last week near her home.

There's some place to go tonight. A big show (no movies) is on at the Curtiss Theatre. adv.

The Corner Grocery says "spaget" takes a tumble. They have an interesting offer in their ad on the back page. Look it up.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ransome D. Parady, of 57 South Washington st., Sunday, January 9th, a son, ten pounds.

Miss Marion Lower has accepted the position of pipe organist at the Methodist-Episcopal Church at Berwyn, Illinois.

The "Hunt-Raffles" show which comes to the Curtiss Theatre tonight is composed of acts that have shown in the leading theatres of Chicago. adv.

Mrs. Chas. R. Edwards of Rockford, Ill., is visiting with Mrs. A. H. VanValen, at her home on W. Maple avenue.

Dorothy Dalton, Sir James Barri, Paramount, these names mean much to any movie fan. See Half An Hour at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night. adv.

Miss Jessie Bryce of East Maple avenue, is spending a few days in the land of sunshine and flowers in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Hinsdale Upholstering and Furniture Repair Shop. All work neatly done at reasonable prices. Phone 635 or send postcard. Will call and deliver free of charge. 11-26-tf.

The E. L. Dickerson family are occupying the Allen house on Midlaugh avenue, having sold their residence on Linscott avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burt entertained a party of friends at dinner on Saturday evening at their new home on Oakwood avenue.

"Humoresque," the greatest picture made in 1920, will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre two days—Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 18 and 19. adv.

Virginia and John Edwin, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Knox, of Highland avenue, are ill with diphtheria.

Dorothy Dalton, famous star of

"Aphrodite," plays the lead in "Half An Hour," Sir James M. Marri's famous play. See her at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lindsley of New York City, will be the guests of Mrs. R. G. Lane, Saturday. They are en route to California to spend the winter.

Col. Hunt is bringing his company of entertainers to the Curtiss Theatre tonight. The famous "Raffles" Duer Miller's novel "Caldron's Prisoner," Constance Binney is the star. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McManes left for Iowa this week where they will stay for some time. Mr. McManes is taking a rest and recuperating from his recent operation.

Mrs. F. H. Mikoleit returned last Wednesday evening from her trip to Buffalo, New York, where she visited with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Burkhardt.

You will miss one of the season's best pictures if you fail to see "The Daughter Pays," featuring Elaine Hammerstein, at the Dicke Theatre, Friday, Jan. 14. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Austin left for Jacksonville, Florida, last Thursday. They expect to spend the winter there being gone about three months.

Douglas MacLean and Doris May, the popular team that gained such fame in "23 1/2 Hours Leave," and "Mary's Ankle," have scored another hit in "The Jailbird." See it at the Curtiss Theatre Sunday. adv.

A number of friends of Mrs. Mata Krueger surprised her Thursday afternoon at her home on Prince ave., to remind her of her birthday. A very pleasant afternoon was spent.

David Baun, a singer, who so pleased a Downers Grove audience at one of the open air meetings last summer, will sing at the Baptist Church this Friday evening.

The firemen wish to thank the neighbors of the Chivers family for their hot coffee yesterday morning. It being somewhat cold, as you will remember, they say the "Java" went fine.

"Something Different," which will be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 15, is adapted from Alice Duer Miller's novel "Caldron's Prisoner," Constance Binney is the star. adv.

The Rev. John Stewart, pastor of the Baptist church, was called to the death of his uncle, Alexander Kennedy. He left Sunday night and expects to be back Saturday.

On Friday, Jan. 14, the Dicke Theatre will show another Mabel Normand picture, "When Doctors Disagree." All of Miss Normand's pictures are snappy and full of pep and "When Doctors Disagree" is no exception. adv.

The party who picked up the pair of Johnson racer skates in front of the Reporter office last Sunday night or Monday morning is known. If you wish to avoid trouble put them back where to you got them.

Nothing can be said in cold print about "Humoresque" that will do the picture justice. It is one of those productions that you have to see in order to appreciate. It will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. adv.

Miss Julia Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Briggs, underwent a serious operation at the St. Charles hospital, Aurora, Monday morning. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

"Humoresque" is an answer to the critics who lament the artificiality of motion pictures. This photoplay is real life faithfully portrayed. It has an intense appeal to the heart equalled by few works of literature and fewer stage productions.

The Sanctuary Society of St. Joseph's Church will meet in the Rectory Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Book of Judges and history of Israel will be commenced at this meeting.

Mrs. H. E. Wright of North Main street, had charge of the Library Reading Room on Sunday afternoon. The hours are from 3 to 5 and it is a pleasant place to spend a few hours.

Have you seen the two-reel comedies which are being shown at the Dicke Theatre every Saturday? Sure you have. Do you like them? Well, there are a lot more just like them to come. adv.

Mrs. B. R. Graham and children spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sheridan and son, leaving Wednesday for Prophetstown, Ill., to join

Buy a raffle ticket for a Ford Touring car and help the Fire Truck Fund. You may win the Henry for $100.

Mr. Graham, who has a confectionary store and

The Ladies Aid Society of the Gregational Church will meet Thursday afternoon at 1:30 in church parlors. Members and friends are extended a cordial invitation to be present.

Mrs. Elmer O. Haley of West road street, returned home Wednesday from the MacNeal Hospital in Berwyn, Ill., with a fine baby born Thursday, December 30th, 1920. Mr. Haley's chest was out seven feet when seen walking home with the precious bundle.

To quickly introduce the K. K. K. Coal Saver in every home the manufacturers, the Fred K. Sabin Co., Heating Engineers, of Philadelphia, Pa., have reduced the selling price to $12.75, believing that a satisfied customer is the best advertising. See large ad on page 3 for details. adv.

Miss Marion Lower has accepted the position of pipe organist at the Methodist-Episcopal Church at Berwyn, Illinois.

The "Hunt-Raffles" show which comes to the Curtiss Theatre tonight is composed of acts that have shown in the leading theatres of Chicago. adv.

Mrs. Chas. R. Edwards of Rockford, Ill., is visiting with Mrs. A. H. VanValen, at her home on W. Maple avenue.

Dorothy Dalton, Sir James Barri, Paramount, these names mean much to any movie fan. See Half An Hour at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night. adv.

Miss Jessie Bryce of East Maple avenue, is spending a few days in the land of sunshine and flowers in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Hinsdale Upholstering and Furniture Repair Shop. All work neatly done at reasonable prices. Phone 635 or send postcard. Will call and deliver free of charge. 11-26-tf.

The E. L. Dickerson family are occupying the Allen house on Midlaugh avenue, having sold their residence on Linscott avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burt entertained a party of friends at dinner on Saturday evening at their new home on Oakwood avenue.

"Humoresque," the greatest picture made in 1920, will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre two days—Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 18 and 19. adv.

Virginia and John Edwin, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Knox, of Highland avenue, are ill with diphtheria.

Dorothy Dalton, famous star of

mer, will sing at the Baptist Church this Friday evening.

The firemen wish to thank the neighbors of the Chivers family for their hot coffee yesterday morning. It being somewhat cold, as you will remember, they say the "Java" went fine.

"Something Different," which will be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 15, is adapted from Alice Duer Miller's novel "Caldron's Prisoner," Constance Binney is the star. adv.

The Rev. John Stewart, pastor of the Baptist church, was called to the death of his uncle, Alexander Kennedy. He left Sunday night and expects to be back Saturday.

On Friday, Jan. 14, the Dicke Theatre will show another Mabel Normand picture, "When Doctors Disagree." All of Miss Normand's pictures are snappy and full of pep and "When Doctors Disagree" is no exception. adv.

The party who picked up the pair of Johnson racer skates in front of the Reporter office last Sunday night or Monday morning is known. If you wish to avoid trouble put them back where to you got them.

Nothing can be said in cold print about "Humoresque" that will do the picture justice. It is one of those productions that you have to see in order to appreciate. It will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. adv.

Miss Julia Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Briggs, underwent a serious operation at the St. Charles hospital, Aurora, Monday morning. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

"Humoresque" is an answer to the critics who lament the artificiality of motion pictures. This photoplay is real life faithfully portrayed. It has an intense appeal to the heart equalled by few works of literature and fewer stage productions.

The Sanctuary Society of St. Joseph's Church will meet in the Rectory Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Book of Judges and history of Israel will be commenced at this meeting.

Mrs. H. E. Wright of North Main street, had charge of the Library Reading Room on Sunday afternoon. The hours are from 3 to 5 and it is a pleasant place to spend a few hours.

Have you seen the two-reel comedies which are being shown at the Dicke Theatre every Saturday? Sure you have. Do you like them? Well, there are a lot more just like them to come. adv.

Mrs. B. R. Graham and children spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sheridan and son, leaving Wednesday for Prophetstown, Ill., to join

Buy a raffle ticket for a Ford Touring car and help the Fire Truck Fund. You may win the Henry for $100.

Mr. Graham, who has a confectionary store and

The Ladies Aid Society of the Gregational Church will meet Thursday afternoon at 1:30 in church parlors. Members and friends are extended a cordial invitation to be present.

Mrs. Elmer O. Haley of West road street, returned home Wednesday from the MacNeal Hospital in Berwyn, Ill., with a fine baby born Thursday, December 30th, 1920. Mr. Haley's chest was out seven feet when seen walking home with the precious bundle.

To quickly introduce the K. K. K. Coal Saver in every home the manufacturers, the Fred K. Sabin Co., Heating Engineers, of Philadelphia, Pa., have reduced the selling price to $12.75, believing that a satisfied customer is the best advertising. See large ad on page 3 for details. adv.

Miss Marion Lower has accepted the position of pipe organist at the Methodist-Episcopal Church at Berwyn, Illinois.

The "Hunt-Raffles" show which comes to the Curtiss Theatre tonight is composed of acts that have shown in the leading theatres of Chicago. adv.

Mrs. Chas. R. Edwards of Rockford, Ill., is visiting with Mrs. A. H. VanValen, at her home on W. Maple avenue.

Dorothy Dalton, Sir James Barri, Paramount, these names mean much to any movie fan. See Half An Hour at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night. adv.

Miss Jessie Bryce of East Maple avenue, is spending a few days in the land of sunshine and flowers in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Hinsdale Upholstering and Furniture Repair Shop. All work neatly done at reasonable prices. Phone 635 or send postcard. Will call and deliver free of charge. 11-26-tf.

The E. L. Dickerson family are occupying the Allen house on Midlaugh avenue, having sold their residence on Linscott avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burt entertained a party of friends at dinner on Saturday evening at their new home on Oakwood avenue.

"Humoresque," the greatest picture made in 1920, will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre two days—Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 18 and 19. adv.

Virginia and John Edwin, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Knox, of Highland avenue, are ill with diphtheria.

Dorothy Dalton, famous star of

mer, will sing at the Baptist Church this Friday evening.

The firemen wish to thank the neighbors of the Chivers family for their hot coffee yesterday morning. It being somewhat cold, as you will remember, they say the "Java" went fine.

"Something Different," which will be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 15, is adapted from Alice Duer Miller's novel "Caldron's Prisoner," Constance Binney is the star. adv.

The Rev. John Stewart, pastor of the Baptist church, was called to the death of his uncle, Alexander Kennedy. He left Sunday night and expects to be back Saturday.

On Friday, Jan. 14, the Dicke Theatre will show another Mabel Normand picture, "When Doctors Disagree." All of Miss Normand's pictures are snappy and full of pep and "When Doctors Disagree" is no exception. adv.

The party who picked up the pair of Johnson racer skates in front of the Reporter office last Sunday night or Monday morning is known. If you wish to avoid trouble put them back where to you got them.

Nothing can be said in cold print about "Humoresque" that will do the picture justice. It is one of those productions that you have to see in order to appreciate. It will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. adv.

Miss Julia Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Briggs, underwent a serious operation at the St. Charles hospital, Aurora, Monday morning. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

"Humoresque" is an answer to the critics who lament the artificiality of motion pictures. This photoplay is real life faithfully portrayed. It has an intense appeal to the heart equalled by few works of literature and fewer stage productions.

The Sanctuary Society of St. Joseph's Church will meet in the Rectory Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Book of Judges and history of Israel will be commenced at this meeting.

Mrs. H. E. Wright of North Main street, had charge of the Library Reading Room on Sunday afternoon. The hours are from 3 to 5 and it is a pleasant place to spend a few hours.

Have you seen the two-reel comedies which are being shown at the Dicke Theatre every Saturday? Sure you have. Do you like them? Well, there are a lot more just like them to come. adv.

Mrs. B. R. Graham and children spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sheridan and son, leaving Wednesday for Prophetstown, Ill., to join

Buy a raffle ticket for a Ford Touring car and help the Fire Truck Fund. You may win the Henry for $100.

Mr. Graham, who has a confectionary store and

The Ladies Aid Society of the Gregational Church will meet Thursday afternoon at 1:30 in church parlors. Members and friends are extended a cordial invitation to be present.

Mrs. Elmer O. Haley of West road street, returned home Wednesday from the MacNeal Hospital in Berwyn, Ill., with a fine baby born Thursday, December 30th, 1920. Mr. Haley's chest was out seven feet when seen walking home with the precious bundle.

To quickly introduce the K. K. K. Coal Saver in every home the manufacturers, the Fred K. Sabin Co., Heating Engineers, of Philadelphia, Pa., have reduced the selling price to $12.75, believing that a satisfied customer is the best advertising. See large ad on page 3 for details. adv.

Miss Marion Lower has accepted the position of pipe organist at the Methodist-Episcopal Church at Berwyn, Illinois.

The "Hunt-Raffles" show which comes to the Curtiss Theatre tonight is composed of acts that have shown in the leading theatres of Chicago. adv.

Mrs. Chas. R. Edwards of Rockford, Ill., is visiting with Mrs. A. H. VanValen, at her home on W. Maple avenue.

Dorothy Dalton, Sir James Barri, Paramount, these names mean much to any movie fan. See Half An Hour at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night. adv.

Miss Jessie Bryce of East Maple avenue, is spending a few days in the land of sunshine and flowers in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Hinsdale Upholstering and Furniture Repair Shop. All work neatly done at reasonable prices. Phone 635 or send postcard. Will call and deliver free of charge. 11-26-tf.

The E. L. Dickerson family are occupying the Allen house on Midlaugh avenue, having sold their residence on Linscott avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burt entertained a party of friends at dinner on Saturday evening at their new home on Oakwood avenue.

"Humoresque," the greatest picture made in 1920, will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre two days—Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 18 and 19. adv.

Virginia and John Edwin, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Knox, of Highland avenue, are ill with diphtheria.

Dorothy Dalton, famous star of

mer, will sing at the Baptist Church this Friday evening.

The firemen wish to thank the neighbors of the Chivers family for their hot coffee yesterday morning. It being somewhat cold, as you will remember, they say the "Java" went fine.

"Something Different," which will be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 15, is adapted from Alice Duer Miller's novel "Caldron's Prisoner," Constance Binney is the star. adv.

The Rev. John Stewart, pastor of the Baptist church, was called to the death of his uncle, Alexander Kennedy. He left Sunday night and expects to be back Saturday.

On Friday, Jan. 14, the Dicke Theatre will show another Mabel Normand picture, "When Doctors Disagree." All of Miss Normand's pictures are snappy and full of pep and "When Doctors Disagree" is no exception. adv.

The party who picked up the pair of Johnson racer skates in front of the Reporter office last Sunday night or Monday morning is known. If you wish to avoid trouble put them back where to you got them.

Nothing can be said in cold print about "Humoresque" that will do the picture justice. It is one of those productions that you have to see in order to appreciate. It will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. adv.

Miss Julia Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Briggs, underwent a serious operation at the St. Charles hospital, Aurora, Monday morning. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

"Humoresque" is an answer to the critics who lament the artificiality of motion pictures. This photoplay is real life faithfully portrayed. It has an intense appeal to the heart equalled by few works of literature and fewer stage productions.

The Sanctuary Society of St. Joseph's Church will meet in the Rectory Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Book of Judges and history of Israel will be commenced at this meeting.

Mrs. H. E. Wright of North Main street, had charge of the Library Reading Room on Sunday afternoon. The hours are from 3 to 5 and it is a pleasant place to spend a few hours.

Have you seen the two-reel comedies which are being shown at the Dicke Theatre every Saturday? Sure you have. Do you like them? Well, there are a lot more just like them to come. adv.

Mrs. B. R. Graham and children spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sheridan and son, leaving Wednesday for Prophetstown, Ill., to join

Buy a raffle ticket for a Ford Touring car and help the Fire Truck Fund. You may win the Henry for $100.

Mr. Graham, who has a confectionary store and

The Ladies Aid Society of the Gregational Church will meet Thursday afternoon at 1:30 in church parlors. Members and friends are extended a cordial invitation to be present.

Mrs. Elmer O. Haley of West road street, returned home Wednesday from the MacNeal Hospital in Berwyn, Ill., with a fine baby born Thursday, December 30th, 1920. Mr. Haley's chest was out seven feet when seen walking home with the precious bundle.

To quickly introduce the K. K. K. Coal Saver in every home the manufacturers, the Fred K. Sabin Co., Heating Engineers, of Philadelphia, Pa., have reduced the selling price to $12.75, believing that a satisfied customer is the best advertising. See large ad on page 3 for details. adv.

Miss Marion Lower has accepted the position of pipe organist at the Methodist-Episcopal Church at Berwyn, Illinois.

The "Hunt-Raffles" show which comes to the Curtiss Theatre tonight is composed of acts that have shown in the leading theatres of Chicago. adv.

Mrs. Chas. R. Edwards of Rockford, Ill., is visiting with Mrs. A. H. VanValen, at her home on W. Maple avenue.

Dorothy Dalton, Sir James Barri, Paramount, these names mean much to any movie fan. See Half An Hour at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night. adv.

Miss Jessie Bryce of East Maple avenue, is spending a few days in the land of sunshine and flowers in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Hinsdale Upholstering and Furniture Repair Shop. All work neatly done at reasonable prices. Phone 635 or send postcard. Will call and deliver free of charge. 11-26-tf.

The E. L. Dickerson family are occupying the Allen house on Midlaugh avenue, having sold their residence on Linscott avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burt entertained a party of friends at dinner on Saturday evening at their new home on Oakwood avenue.

"Humoresque," the greatest picture made in 1920, will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre two days—Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 18 and 19. adv.

Virginia and John Edwin, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Knox, of Highland avenue, are ill with diphtheria.

Dorothy Dalton, famous star of

mer, will sing at the Baptist Church this Friday evening.

The firemen wish to thank the neighbors of the Chivers family for their hot coffee yesterday morning. It being somewhat cold, as you will remember, they say the "Java" went fine.

"Something Different," which will be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 15, is adapted from Alice Duer Miller's novel "Caldron's Prisoner," Constance Binney is the star. adv.

The Rev. John Stewart, pastor of the Baptist church, was called to the death of his uncle, Alexander Kennedy. He left Sunday night and expects to be back Saturday.

On Friday, Jan. 14, the Dicke Theatre will show another Mabel Normand picture, "When Doctors Disagree." All of Miss Normand's pictures are snappy and full of pep and "When Doctors Disagree" is no exception. adv.

The party who picked up the pair of Johnson racer skates in front of the Reporter office last Sunday night or Monday morning is known. If you wish to avoid trouble put them back where to you got them.