

PERSONALS

If you need a founu. 188-J.

The A. E. Olson family entertained guests from Moline, Ill., on Sunday.

Miss Alice Zell visited with Mrs. Weber in Aurora last Sunday.

"Held By the Enemy" is a six reel Paramount picture.

"The Follies", they'll be here Feb. 24 and 25. Save the date.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chilvers are making their home for the present with their son Roy, on Middaugh.

Elon Staats underwent a small operation at LaGrange last Saturday when his tonsils were removed.

"Bride 13"—the most thrilling serial ever produced begins at the Curtiss Theatre next week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas spent the week end at Buda, Ill., visiting with Mr. Thomas' father and sister.

Fred and Louis Klein of Welcome, Minn., are spending a few weeks here with relatives and friends.

Sure there will be a two reel comedy at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night—always has been.

Dorothy Darnley, daughter of Mrs. Robert Darnley of Highland avenue, is ill with double pneumonia.

Mrs. Ralph Gaehner entertained a few friends at bunco last Friday afternoon.

Charles Ray in "An Old Fashioned Boy" at the Curtiss Theatre next week.

The North Side Grocery and Market is announcing some real bargains on Page 5. Look 'em up now.

Orville Willard reports that he has heard a meadow lark singing about his place on North Forest avenue.

Mr. F. E. Blair of Chapin, Ill., has been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. H. O. Woodward of Washington st.

George C. Schindler made a business trip to Champaign, Ill., last week.

Mrs. Mae LaCharty spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Lanphere of Chicago.

Miss Germaine of North Main st. is confined to her home with an attack of diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Grush and family of Naperville, were guests at the La Charty home on Sunday.

Mrs. King of Oakwood avenue is spending some time with her sister in Aurora, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Baldwin have returned to their home at Newton Falls, Ohio, after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. B. Jenkins.

Mrs. Rose Parker of Grays Lake, an old school mate of Mrs. Jennie Parker, died January 18th, and was buried Thursday, January 20.

Dr. Harper, President of the Motor Trust Co., in which Capt. R. D. Parker is interested, was buried on Sunday, January 9th.

Another one of Rex Beach's famous stories, "The Girl from Outside" will be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 22.

Miss Minnie Zell spent last Sunday in Geneva visiting her old neighbor, Mrs. Walbaum, who formerly made her home here.

Improvements have been made in the heating plant at the Curtiss and perfect comfort on the coldest nights is now assured its patrons.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mochel spent Sunday in Chicago with Mr. Mochel's sister, Mrs. Mary Bohlander and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Winter and daughters, visited last Sunday with the Chas. Winter family at their home in Logan Square, Chicago.

Heard on Main Street—Two small boys at some distance apart, "Hoo, hoo, Skinnay; Good news; Small pox in town, no school."

A full line of the celebrated INDU cosmetics for sale at Marion Dexter's Art Kraft Shop, one door south of the Ross Bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hodge are now occupying the M. L. Puffer property at 53 Middaugh avenue, known as the Allen place.

Another story by a well-known author, "Squandered Lives", written by Cosmo Hamilton, will be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Thursday, Jan. 27th.

Harold Beidelman returned last Saturday from his trip to California where he has been visiting with many people who formerly called Downers Grove their home.

The American navy with all its implements of warfare plays an important part in "Bride 13," the serial that begins at the Curtiss Theatre next week.

Miss Maud Bateman has returned from Newark, N. J. On her way back she spent a week in Rochester, N. Y., the guest of Miss Susie Edwards.

Wanda Hawley, Jack Holt, Agnes Ayres and Lewis Stone are the principals in the famous play "Held By the Enemy" which will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre Sunday.

Mrs. Matilda Johnson, Valentine Mochel and Fred, Louis and Elmer Klein of Welcome, Minn., spent Sunday in Forest Park with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mochel.

The Sunday matinee at the Curtiss Theatre starts at 3:00 p. m. "The Restless Six" will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre both Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Mrs. Adelaide McKey and daughter, Grace, have returned from an extended visit to Omaha, Neb., where they were the guests of Mrs. McKey's daughter, Dorothy.

Hinsdale Upholstering and Furniture Repair Shop. All work neatly done at reasonable prices. Phone 635 or send postcard. Will call and deliver free of charge.

Have you read Robert W. Chambers' brilliant novel, "The Restless Sex"? It has been pictured and will be shown at the Curtiss Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Nothing is more thrilling than a red-blooded tale of the lumberlands. There the hero fights for his heroine with two rugged fists. See "The Valley of Doubt" at the Dicke Theatre, Friday, Jan. 21.

Mrs. Wm. Kuogemann had charge of the reading room of the Library on Sunday afternoon. The hours are 3:00 to 5:30. We hope the townspeople will avail themselves of the opportunity.

Coming soon at the Curtiss Theatre, "Why Change Your Wife?" A series of Mack Sennett comedies have been booked for the Curtiss Theatre. The first one will be shown next week.

The next meeting of the Woman's Guild of S. Andrew's Church will be held next Thursday afternoon, January 27th, at the home of Mrs. B. E. Balczynski on Linscott avenue. Mrs. W. W. Barry will assist.

For rent—Office in Curtiss Theatre Bldg. See Elmer H. Uhlhorn, ad. Lois Wilson plays opposite Bryant Washburn in "A Full House" to be shown at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night.

The St. Paul's Ladies Aid will give a dinner to members and friends of the congregation, Thursday, January 27 at 7:00 p. m. After the dinner a program will be given in the church auditorium by home talent.

There is nothing more entertaining to the theatre goer than a good, clever, two-reel comedy. See these two-reel comedies at the Dicke Theatre every Friday and Saturday. A different one each day.

The 7:30 a. m. service in S. Andrew's Church will be omitted this Sunday, other services as usual. The Rev. Hugh MacWhorter will conduct the morning services at S. Paul's Church, Hammond, Indiana, in the absence of the rector.

The Iota Theta Pi sorority gave a "shower" Saturday evening, January 15th, at the home of Mrs. Roland W. Schultz, in honor of Mrs. Leon Wilson of Chicago. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Edna Simonson and a member of the sorority.

C. W. VanBeynum visited with the O'Brien and Gachner families and with old friends here Monday and Tuesday. He is here from Hartford, Conn., to attend a state meeting of the Travellers Insurance Co. men at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Herbert Dawson and Mrs. Albert Langosch attended a theatre party at the Garrick Theatre on Wednesday afternoon with supper at Terrace Gardens afterwards. The party was given by the Entre Nous Club of Chicago Lawn.

J. S. Lozier reports that he saw a flicker, otherwise known as yellow-hammer and yellow bellied sap sucker, while working on the tract of land north of Westmont. This is the earliest this harbinger of spring has ever been reported.

The Philathea Class of the Methodist Church are planning a social in the church parlors, Friday evening, January 28th. The hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. Frank E. Lower, Mrs. A. E. Olson, Miss Mary Fletcher and Miss Emma Mills.

The year just closed was marked by the largest amount of missionary money raised in any one year in the history of the Young Peoples Alliance of First Evangelical Church. Mission Study meetings were held once a month throughout the year.

Mrs. Amelia Parker, a relative of Capt. R. D. Parker, at one time resident of Downers Grove, died at St. Charles, Ill., January 14, and was buried in the St. Charles cemetery. Capt. and Mrs. Parker attended the funeral.

Capt. and Mrs. R. D. Parker were called to Chicago Thursday, January 13, to attend the funeral of Mr. Chas. Wright, brother-in-law of Mrs. Parker. Services were held at the corner of Wallace and Forty Seventh Street, burial being made at Mount Hope cemetery.

A forger, a burglar, a confidence man, a pickpocket and a stick-up man—these are the five scoundrels to whom "The Girl from Outside" is first introduced when she lands in the town of Nome, Alaska. See this great picture at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, Jan. 22.

Additional locals on page 8.

The Dicke Theatre

BELMONT AND FOREST AVENUES DOWNERS GROVE, ILLINOIS

Friday, January 21st

Lewis J. Selznick presents WILLARD MACK'S "THE VALLEY OF DOUBT" Scenario by R. Cecil Smith. Directed by Burton George.

The Story of a Girl with a Woman's Soul

A Stirring Tale of the Timberlands

A Romance of the Northern Snow Country

Also

A Special 2-Reel Comedy

Evening 7:30 & 9:15. Admission 15 and 25c including War Tax.

Saturday, January 22d REX BEACH'S GREAT DRAMA OF THE NORTH

"The Girl From Outside"

Out there in the frozen trail, of Alaska, "The Girl," alone and friendless, struggles among strong, ruthless men who recognize no code of honor.

Also PATHE NEWS

Two-Reel Chester Comedy — "AN OVERALL HERO" NO MATINEE

Evening—7:30-9:15. Admission 15 & 25 cents including War Tax

Thursday, January 27th Guy Newall and Ivy Duke

"SQUANDERED LIVES"

An entertaining story by the popular Cosmo Hamilton, one of the most clever writers of today. To be the younger son of a family is not the greatest pleasure in the world, as Lord Francis discovered and when he took his profession he really believed he had sunk to the lowest depths.

Also ROLIN COMEDY—"MAMMA'S BOY" Bray Pictograph—"THIS WONDERFUL WORLD"

Evening—7:30-9:15. Admission 15 & 25 cents including War Tax

North Side Grocery & Market Specials

That the cost of living is going down can easily be seen from the price of this week's specials given below. Prices are not coming down—THEY ARE DOWN. As we announced last week, every week we will have one or two articles on sale at prices that will pay you to take advantage of. Each will be a REAL BARGAIN at the price asked. Look over this week's offerings—

SUGAR 10 lbs. 95c

Potatoes peck 35c

Monarch Coffee 3 lb. can, $1.10

FERNDELL COFFEE Per Pound 48c

HEINTZ BAKED BEANS Medium Sized Cans 18c

ARMOUR'S OATS Small Package 15c

PRUNES Per Pound 20c

Meats

For that big Sunday dinner or just for lunch, we have fresh and good meats of every variety. Quality in meats is one of the things about our store in which we take pride.

FRESH FRUIT AND VEGETABLES OF ALL KINDS

NORTH SIDE GROCERY & MARKET

STEWART M. BURNS, Proprietor

Telephone 2

Harry Walker Phone 191-R Henry Dicke Phone 123-R

WALKER & DICKE PAINTING

Decorating Paper Hanging

Estimates on all work cheerfully furnished

S. Andrew's Church

JANUARY 23, 1921

The Rev. Gardner A. MacWhorter, Religious Editor of the Chicago Tribune, will preach and conduct the 11:00 a. m. service.

St. Joseph's Church

SUNDAY, 10:00 A. M.

Second Lecture

The Lord's Day

Observance During the Mediaeval Period

BY THE REV. ENEAS B. GOODWIN