SELIG — HOFFERT

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Selig of this village last Saturday night when their daughter, Lydia Ann, was united in marriage to Mr. Albert J. Hoffert of Fort Madison, Ia. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of pink and white. Just as the clock struck eight the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding march were played by Miss Clara Steffin, cousin of the bride, and the happy pair entered, accompanied by the bride's sister, Frieda, and brother, Albert, who served as attendants.

The beautiful bride was charming in her evening gown of white satin charmeuse. She wore a bridal veil caught in a bandeau about her head with sprays of lily of the valley. The groom wore conventional blue. The bride's maid wore pink charmeuse. The impressive ring service was read by the Rev. J. Alfred Nansen, minister of First Evangelical Church.

Following the ceremony dinner was served to about fifty guests of the happy occasion.

THREE ARTISTS PLEASED LARGE NUMBER TUESDAY

Second Program of Musical Extension Series Was Treated to Music Lovers.

The second number in the series of entertainments arranged by the Community Council was given Tuesday night to a large audience at the Dicke Theatre. The program, rendered by Mr. McGrannahan, tenor; Lorraine Earnest, violinist and Ruth Bradley, pianist, measured up to the expectations of the most optimistic and dispelled the last lingering doubt of the most pessimistic critic. Qualified critics pronounced it the best musical entertainment given in the Grove for many years. The geniality of the artists established a connection of good will between themselves and the audience from the beginning of the program. The audience received the splendidly rendered numbers with enthusiasm and each of the artists responded with effores, which is unusual in a set artistic program of this nature. The artists came here bent on pleasing their audience and certainly accomplished their purpose. Those who were not there missed it.

Two numbers still remain on the course. The next number will be a popular program by Mr. Elias Day, impersonator and entertainer. Twenty-eight years of experience in the Chautauquas and lyceums are sufficient introduction. This is a program that the children will especially enjoy. It will be given Tuesday evening, March 15th.

The last number will be Tuesday evening, April 19th, by a company of three artists including Margery Maxwell, prima donna lyric soprano of the Chicago Grand Opera Association. The single admission for each of the remaining two numbers for children is 75 cents and for adults $1.00. You will not want to miss these two numbers so get your tickets now at either local bank. Season tickets will also be sold at the theatre both at this reduced rate thirty minutes before the next entertainment starts.

The local committee also wishes to call attention to the fact that the first concert in Orchestra Hall for which coupons held by season ticket purchasers of the local entertainment series will give reduced rates, is on Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 or evening at 8:15, February 8th. The concert is given by Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra. Reservations may be made now by writing in to the management office of Orchestra Hall and enclosing coupon designating the seats desired.

The "Seven Senses."
According to Ecclesiasticus, 17:3, man is endowed with the senses of seeing, hearing, tasting, feeling, smelling, understanding and speech. The last two are not, of course, "senses" in the scientific meaning of the term.

VETS. OF CO. H IN FIRST ANNUAL BANQUET TONITE

Ex-Militia Men to Make Merry at Organization Meeting in G. A. R. Hall.

One of the jolliest affairs of the season is expected this evening when the Veterans of Company H, Illinois Reserve Militia, gather in the G. A. R. Hall, Main and Curtiss streets, for the first annual banquet and meeting.

Supper will be served at six-thirty o'clock to the men who served during and after the war in the reserves. The banquet committee, with Howard P. Jones at their head declare that it will be some feed. They should know because they have been planning the menu for three weeks and by this time it should tempt the appetites of even the most ticklish palate. They also are of the opinion that seconds, thirds and even fourths will be forthcoming to all who can display the capacity to deserve them.

Following the supper will be the first annual meeting of the veterans. This will be in the nature of an organization meeting and election of officers for the ensuing year. At a re-union held December 27th it was decided that the "Veterans Association of Company H" be formed and that further details would be perfected at the annual meeting. So this evening by-laws will be adopted and further activities of the association outlined.

There will be song and story. The story will be furnished by the men who soldiered so nobly "back of the Yards" in the "African war." And believe me, those many have some funny stories to tell of their experiences while keeping the white and black races from killing each other in the memorable fight. Major John P. Mobbs, who commanded the battalion of which Co. H was a part, is a member of the organization and will be here to make a talk and join in the festivities of the occasion. The men all swear by the Major and he (used to) swear at them, so when he is present they like to give him what is known in army circles as "the razz."

Almost two hundred invitations have been sent out for the affair and from the number of acceptances coming in, the hall will be crowded.

You Want to See

all you can when you go to California this winter. So does everybody else. Therefore the Burlington has inaugurated a new service through Scenic Colorado and The Land of The Mormons, by way of the D. & R. G. and Western Pacific, which gives its patrons the biggest scenic treat it is possible for a transcontinental trip to contain. And, the schedule is arranged so that the most important points are passed in daylight. It takes a little longer to go this way, but it costs no more, and when you have been thrilled by the fascination and grandeur of the scenes along this route you will say there's no route like the Burlington through the West.

You don't want to be disappointed about getting space when you are ready to go. Therefore, just as soon as your date of departure is fixed, be sure and let me know.

Little Suggestions to Telephone Users

When you signal the telephone operator and ask for a number she repeats it. She is trained to follow this practice in order to be sure she has heard you correctly.

It is a good plan to answer "Yes," "Right" or something similar if the operator's reply shows that she has rightly understood you. Then she is sure and can make the proper connection without loss of time.

When a conversation is finished, it is well for both parties to say "Good-bye." This often avoids an extra call made in the belief that the users have been "cut off" in the midst of their conversation.
