Pleasure Seekers are going to find what they desire at the Dicke Theatre, Thurs., Feb. 19, when "Pleasure Seekers", featuring Elaine Hammerstein will be shown. adv. Looks funny in this winter of 1920-21 to see snow on the ground. A rain Saturday afternoon turned to snow in the evening and Sunday morning we were greeted with a white background to the usual village activities. The Woman's Missionary Society of the Congregational Church will meet Friday, February 11th, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Calcedo, 162 Randall street. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends. A fine, healthy, enjoyable story of genuine American life for Americans. This is "The Snob," featuring Wanda Hawley as the heroine in one of the most refreshing stories of youth and love and college life ever screened. See it at the Dicke Theatre, Friday, Feb. 11th. Snow is almost as much of a curiosity to us this winter as to the people of Los Angeles who made such a fuss about it several weeks ago. The little we have seen has not lasted long and the "chilly" weather we are experiencing makes us wonder about spring. Lucille Bush and Dorothy Phelps spent Friday and Saturday in Beloit, Wisconsin. While there they witnessed the Ripon-Beloit basketball game which resulted in Ripon's favor. They visited with Bruce Bush who plays on the Ripon five and Edward Kolar who is T K E at Beloit. The Organized Adult Bible Class of First Evangelical Church held its monthly Business and Social meeting in the home of the pastor and his wife last Thursday evening. More than twenty were present. A fine program was enjoyed and refreshments were served. The call of the fire siren about 9 o'clock Monday evening brought everyone to their feet, but the lack of a designating ward, made it apparent that the whistle was blown to announce the safe arrival of our new fire truck. It certainly is a beauty and one of which a community twice our size might well be proud. When did your paper arrive this week? Everyone on the Rural Route should have had it Friday morning and everyone in the Village before Friday evening. Let us know as Downers Grove deserves good mail service and we are working with Washington now to see that we have it. The Nature Study Class will hold their next meeting on Friday, February 11th, at the home of Mrs. Oscar Reinhold in Highland Acres. Luncheon at noon and the program will be an interesting one. As soon as the weather permits the class will study the flowers found in our own Forest Preserve. The Christian Endeavor had a social in the Congregational Church parlors, Saturday evening, January 29th. Games were played, stunts were pulled off and refreshments served. The social committee with Edwin Graves as chairman, was responsible for the great success of the affair. "The Inner Voice," to be shown at the Dicke Theatre, Sat., Feb. 5, was advertised to be shown on Christmas Day but was delayed in transit by the express company. It is such a great picture that the management decided to run it at a later date and Feb. 5 was the earliest they could obtain it on account of its popularity. Don't miss it. adv. The Methodist Philathea Class will meet Monday evening, February 7, at the home of Mrs. B. J. Stevenson, 50 North Main street, for their regular monthly business and social hour. Every member is urged to come and bring a friend. Many new members have been added to the class lately and they are looking forward to the year 1921 being the best since its organization. Come and help boost.

The Men's Club of the Congregational Church met in the church parlors Tuesday night for the regular monthly business meeting. Plans were made for an aggressive campaign for members and for work in connection with the regular church services. The following officers were elected to fill the expired term of those who have served during the past year: President, J. W. Graves. Vice-President, S. L. Felton; Secretary, Charles Knoblauch. Chas. Saturday, February 5th E. K. Lincoln in "THE INNER VOICE"

"The Inner Voice" is human—throughout its entire story there is not a note that strikes in discord with possibility or probability: It will strike a responsive note in the heart of everyone, because at sometime in your career you have experienced the same joys, the same emotions, the same wrongs, and we trust that all will reach the same degree of success which Mark Reid, the hero of "The Inner Voice" achieved at the end of his journey. This is that great picture advertised to be shown Christmas Day, but which was delayed in transit. Don't miss it. ALSO

How Do They Do It? It takes training to turn a man into a frozen worm by simply tilting the chin and turning the cold shoulder. But our heroine had been all too well trained by her social-climbing mother. And so when the hero came along and proved to be a waiter, no snob was ever snobbier, and the whole college determined to give her a lesson. For genuine fun and spirit, you can't beat this picture. Also 2-REEL COMEDY—"MOTHER'S ANGEL" Ford Educational Weekly Evening 7:30 & 9:15. Admission 15 & 25c inc. W. T.
