ST. PAULS EVANGELICAL GROVE STREET CHURCH

The Rev. Wm. Grotefeld, Pastor
CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Arthur Spencer Phelps, Minister

WOULD YOU LIVE IN A CITY WITH NO CHURCHES? DO YOU ENCOURAGE THOSE IN OUR CITY BY YOUR ATTENDANCE? IF YOU HAVE NO OTHER PREFERENCE WHY NOT COME TO THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH?
Next Sunday morning the minister will speak on "Lincoln, American and Man of Prayer."

The Glory of the Oleanders.
This bright morning we looked from the roof of our veranda, and our neighbor's oleander-trees were glowing like a great crimson cloud; and we said, "There! the oleanders have come back!"

Story of the Thimble.
The modern thimble dates from 1681, when the goldsmith, Nicholas Benschoten of Amsterdam, sent one as a birthday present to a lady with the dedication, "To my frou van Rensselaer, this little object which I have invented and executed as a protective covering for her industrious fingers."

Think Before You Speak.
It is a good thing to say what you think, and to be truthful, but never forget to think what you say and to be thoughtful. A thing may be true, yet should not be said if it helps nobody and hurts somebody.

Hints on Finger Nails.
The growth of nails on the fingers of the hand shows great variance, the thumb's growing most slowly, the middle finger's the most rapidly—Ohio State Journal.

Usually a "Bluffer."
A person who goes around bragging about his "awful temper" is the earliest person in the world to cow by a very small show of firmness and determination.

New Definition.
It was at the end of Elizabeth Ann's first month at school. She had come proudly home with her perfect attendance card and with the information that there had been five absent-minded children this month. On being asked what she meant she replied: "Why that five children forgot to come to school."

A Prince of Laughter
JOHNNY HIMES
"TORCHY COMES THROUGH"
from the Stories by SEWELL FORD

There are lots of ways of getting out of trouble without resort to violence. This is exemplified in "Torchy Comes Through," second of the two reel comedies made from the celebrated stories by Sewell Ford, and starring Johnny Himes, celebrated comedian, which comes to the Dicke Theatre. Here Torchy is trying to help a visiting Prince marry the girl he loves when a guard pins him to the wall. Just at that moment an attractive girl, rather negligee, passes down the hall. Quickly Torchy "introduces" the guard to the girl and as the former turns to bow, Torchy flees. It is another example of "native wit," with which the comedy is filled.

ACCOUNT OF BABY

By MARGUERITE RAND.

Little Mrs. Fenway sat alone in her pretty living room, too miserable even to wipe away the tears that rolled steadily down her cheeks. Unheeded, they splashed upon the new gingham dress that she had bought only a week ago because Tom liked to see her in pink and white. Even the baby's gurgling laugh out on the porch could not win a smile from her; indeed, it added to her wretchedness, for was not the baby, that most adorable bit of humanity, the cause of all her trouble?
"Oh, dear," wept Mrs. Fenway, "I wouldn't have believed that Tom could be so brutal! What shall I do? Oh, I'm so miserable!"
Suddenly, like a ray of hope, came the thought of Aunt Marcia.
"She always helped me out of my troubles at school; perhaps she can think of some way to help me now."
Dabbling some powder on her nose, and hoping that no one would notice her red eyes, she hurried to the telephone station, and an hour later Aunt Marcia was thrown into consternation by the following message:
"Am in a dreadful trouble. Can't you come at once? Dot."
