AMERICAN LEGION NEWS LETTER

It would be difficult to create an atmosphere more favorable to the American Legion than that which attended the birth of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Loomis of Nashua, N. H.

When Rene Viviani returned to France he brought to the French people a lively appreciation of the work of the American Legion, as attested by a wireless message to the ex-service men's organization.

Fifty-eight charters were granted to units of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion during the week ending April 23, Legion national headquarters reports.

One of North Dakota's highest-ranking buck privates has joined the staff of field representatives of national headquarters of the American Legion. He is C. L. Dawson, Beach, N. D.

Praise of the ideals and purposes of the American Legion was voiced by Chin Yun-peng, premier of China, a speaker at a dinner given by the Legion post in Peking.

"My name is Smith and by buddy's name is Brown. I've bet him a trip to the next American Legion convention at Kansas City that there were more Smiths than Browns in the Army during the World War."
