Peaceful Valley

Stone-cold, stone-broke, despairing, disillusioned Hosiab Howe came back to the little home in Peaceful Valley. By day he had trudged the streets of drifting cities and by night he had scanned the misty figures in murky by-ways, peering hopefully into painted faces, searching for the little sister who thought she understood the world, the flesh, the devil!

Drama, real, sheer, genuine! And on top of it comes a laugh that whips back the tears—just in time.
