

LOCALS WIN A. CLOSE 12 INNING GAME—SCORE 6-5

to look ridiculous, being caught ten feet from the bag. "King" also put the winning marker across when he poled a long fly in the twelfth, scoring Mochel.

Kelly got a life at first when Klein dropped his fly and stole second on Nash's low throw which went through Binder letting him to third. Kilduff was out at first, Kelly scoring. Barhaug struck out. Johnson was safe at first on a low throw by Mochel and stole second and third. Mettler struck out. One run.

The locals could do nothing in the first two innings but scored two in their half of the third. Kelly was out on a bunt, Nash to Bruns. Kilduff was safe on Carpenter's error. Barhaug was safe on Mochel's error. Kilduff going to second. Johnson hit to center scoring Kilduff and Barhaug went to third. Mettler hit thru third scoring Barhaug and Johnson. Therrien flied out to Karesh and Smith was out on a foul to Mochel. Three runs.

Downers came right back in their half of the third. Karesh was hit by a pitched ball and took first. Bruns struck out and Karesh stole second. Carpenter hit to left scoring Karesh and went to second on the throw. Mochel beat out a bunt, Molar dropping the throw and Carpenter scored. Herb singled to center; Mochel being held at second; Binder flied to Kilduff and Nash flied to Heggern.

Downers scored one in the fifth after two were gone. Carpenter flied to Kilduff; Mochel flied to Heggern. Herb was safe on Mettler's error. Binder hit to right and Herb scored on an overthrow to third. Brick going to third on the play. Kingsley batted for Nash and struck out. One run.

The Orioles scored one in the sixth and Downers Grove two, tying up the score. Kingsley now catching for the Grove and June Ehninger in right in place of Klein. Kelly hit for two sacks to center, Kilduff out Binder to Bruns. Kelly going to third; Barhaug hit to Carpenter, who fumbled letting Kelly score. Barhaug stole second and third. Johnson flied to Karesh who made a great catch. Downers put two runs across after two were out. June and Cline struck out. Karesh hit to center for three bases; Bruns doubled to left scoring Karesh; Carpenter was safe when Kilduff dropped his fly. Bruns scoring; Mochel flied to Kilduff. Two runs.

From the fifth on the game was tight, both sides threatening to put the winning marker across. Binder and Kingsley got on in the seventh and pulled a double steal but could not be brought home. It was one, two, three for both sides in the eighth and ninth. The Orioles got a man on in the 10th and Therrien whiffed Kingsley. June and Cline in the home tenth. Johnson dropped the third strike on Cline who was out. Johnson to Molar. Neither team could do anything in the 11th altho the Orioles had two men on after two were out. Herb hit Barhaug and Johnson was safe on Mochel's error but Johnny threw out Mettler for the final out.

Herb had been going strong from the sixth inning on and in the 12th three batters to the infield was the extent of the visitor's efforts. Mochel started the home 12th by beating out a hit to Mettler on a close play. Johnny went to third on Herb's single to left and scored on Kingsley's long fly to Kilduff in center ending the game. Lafayettes Next Sunday Next Sunday, June 5th, the locals will play the LaFayettes of Chicago. This should be nearly as good a game as last Sundays. The LaFayettes played in Downers last year on August 29 and the locals won 4 to 1 in an exciting game. In the game both sides scored one run in the second inning and no more until the Legion put two across in the 6th and one in the seventh, ending the scoring.

Box score and summary table for the game between Downers Grove and LaFayettes.

World War—A Dough Boy; a Devil Dog; a Gob; Smiles; Pack Up Your Troubles; the Home Guards; Keep the Home Fires Burning.

Ensemble—My Country 'Tis of Thee. Benediction—The Rev. Hugh M. MacWhorter of St. Andrew's Church.

This is the tentative program as outlined for the evening. It should prove one of the most unique and interesting of the many which Grove Lodge has held in the past for the brave men of '61-'65, whose ranks are thinning out year by year as they answer the last call to stand guard in celestial regions.

An invitation to the affair has been sent out to every resident Mason and it is expected that the hall will be taxed to its capacity.

Refreshments will be served.

Bad Luck to Owe Money.

The halibut fishermen of the Pacific have a reputation for honesty. They invariably pay all their bills before starting on a fishing expedition. They regard it as bad luck to leave any unpaid accounts behind. These men do not work for wages. They pay all expenses for their equipment and then share the proceeds of the trip.
