TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO IN THE REPORTER

From the issue of June 1, 1921

Chas. Hall and Miss Ella Dawson were married Sunday at the residence of the bride's parents on North State street and are now away on their wedding tour.

Misses Nora and Jennie Clithers, Mabel Taggart, Eva King and Messrs. H. C. and William Clithers, all of Chicago, spent Saturday and Sunday at the W. H. Radell home.

Winslow Churchill, one of the pioneer residents of DuPage County died at his home at Railroad and Washington streets, Sunday, May 28th, in his 87th year. Funeral services were held Tuesday, the Rev. A. E. Saunders of Chicago, officiating and burial made in the West Side cemetery.

Married—March 19, 1899, at Milwaukee, Wis., F. L. Radell and Martha M. Mikoleit.

Mrs. J. A. Nash of Richmond, visited with the family of J. W. Nash the past week.

JUST PARAGRAPHS

Any one who doubts the revival of the automobile industry, should be reminded of the necessity of replacing those that get smashed up in accidents every day.

If big business does not soon reduce prices, the people will be calling it pig business.

Being requested to recognize our rights in the island of Yap, Japan pertinaciously refuse to say Yip.

Among the people who have their backs to the wall, are the wall flowers at the dances.

The meanest man yet was reported the other day, consisting of a fellow who wouldn't let his boy mow the lawn, because it gave him such an awful appetite.

Many of the older generation met their end by blowing out the gas, but the present day crowd are more likely to die by stepping on it.

Although 16,149,585 people voted for President Harding, he has so far been so ungrateful as to provide jobs for but few thousands of them.

Some of the men deny that they marry rich girls for money, as they are merely marrying for support.
