Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chilvers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vanderpool and family, of Chicago, over the week end and Memorial Day.

The Womans Missionary Society of the Congregational Church will meet in the church parlors on Friday, June 10th at 2:30 p. m. All members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mochel entertained at their farm home south of the village last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rahmanop and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lehmann, of Oak Park, and Phil Rohmer of the Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox of West Curtiss street left on Monday evening for Milwaukee on a five day auto trip. They will visit at Fon du Lac and Oakfield, Wis., the latter place being the home of Mrs. Cox's father.

Miss Irene Bryan spent the week end at the home of her sister, Mrs. Godfrey Blackburn at Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Blackburn returned with Miss Irene for an extended visit with the home folks.

Miss Ruth Briggs and Mr. Senior Robinson motored to Milwaukee on Sunday making the round trip in one day without any kind of trouble. They report the roads fair in Illinois and good in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Parks spent the holiday camping on the banks of the Fox near Plano. The game fish were not striking but they caught plenty of the other kind.

Mrs. B. R. Graham of Prophetstown, Illinois, formerly of the Grove, attended the State Convention of Womans Clubs in Chicago last week and spent several days with the Albert H. Sheridan family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brookins and son Willard drove to Lily Lake, Ill., with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Langosch last Friday. The name of the town sounds fine, but where, oh! where is the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fitzpatrick and daughter of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Albright of Beverly Hills, spent Memorial Day with their mother, Mrs. E. N. Smart and other relatives in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Willard and son, Thoma, of Cicero, Mr. and Mrs. Schilley of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wander and children of the Grove, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Landorf on Decoration Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mikoleit returned Tuesday evening from their vacation spent in Los Angeles and other California points. Among other folks whom they visited while there they spent a delightful four days with Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Nash.

Everett A. White, who formerly made Downers Grove his home, is spending part of his vacation at the A. E. Olson home on Oakwood ave. Mr. White is a traveling auditor for the "Q" with headquarters at Sheridan, Wyoming.

Mrs. E. J. Williams, Mrs. Martha Thomas, Miss Irene Williams and Miss Margaret Bray, all of Hinsdale, spent Memorial Day with the W. H. Thomas family of Warren avenue. Mrs. Martha Thomas remained to spend a few days.

The May party given by the Catholic Womans League at Library Hall on Saturday evening was a social success. The people present enjoyed the good music and the dancing, the refreshments and the special decorations in place for the occasion.

The new drinking fountain installed last Friday in the park on the north side of the tracks on Main st., fills a long felt want. The one which served cold drinks to the public for so many years there and which was frozen last fall, was sorely missed.

Mrs. Kretzinger and daughter of Columbus, Ohio, were guests of Mrs. C. H. Dicke on Decoration Day. Mrs. Kretzinger is Mrs. Dicke's aunt and is on her way to visit with her brother, Mrs. Dicke's father, in Ogalallah, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Craigmile were hosts at an informal supper last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heal. Covers were laid for ten, those present being Miss Grace and Mr. Arthur Peterson and the Misses Delia and Helen Haase and Mr. Edward, of Clarendon Hills.

The Philathea Class of the M. E. Church and their friends will hold an all-day work meeting at the home of Mrs. Brookins, South Fairmount ave., (the last white house) Wednesday, June 8th. Everybody requested to contribute something toward the lunch.

Miss Hazel Herrmann of Chicago, entertained former club members at Bunco Tuesday in honor of Mrs. J. A. Widler, of Wichita Falls, Texas, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Groat, of 125 Carpenter street. Mrs. Widler and her brother, Eugene Groat, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Good in Wilmette.

Whoever was responsible for the American flag flying at Main and Curtiss streets over night Monday has drawn a large amount of criticism. More comment was heard on the street about this in the last few days than speculation regarding the outcome of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight.

The Al. Modjeska family, accompanied by Miss Adelaide Walter, motored to Peoria Saturday, May 28th, spending Sunday with Mr. Modjeska's brother who is a resident of that city. They made the trip home Decoration Day, enjoying beautiful scenery and what is of more importance, good roads.

The Japanese party given at Library Hall last Friday evening by the Vesta Juniors in honor of the cast of "The Cheerful Liar," was a very pretty affair. The hall was artistically decorated in keeping with the title of the party and those present thoroughly enjoyed the dancing and the refreshments.

Emil Marchand, C. H. Staats and Elon, and Marey Hall fished the Fox river near Geneva all day Monday without getting anything in the way of bass. The boys hold the record for hauling small mouths out of that part of the river and failed to uphold their reputation as go-getters in the fishing line.

Mrs. H. D. Pulsifer and children have left for Cleveland, Ohio, and will spend the summer vacation there and in Pennsylvania and New York State, visiting with relatives and old friends. The Pulsifer home on Saratoga avenue has been rented for the season to Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz.

The Nature Study Class will have a garden party next Friday, June 10, at the home of Mrs. Edward G. Lemon in Highland avenue. A Bohemian luncheon will be served at noon al fresco and it is hoped that the entire membership of this interesting class will be present and enjoy the beautiful lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roe and son, Franklin, motored to Ogle County and the Rock River country on Saturday, via Rochelle and Franklin Grove, spending Sunday and Decoration Day with relatives. They were met there by their daughter, Thelma, who was returning from her years school work in Mapleton, Iowa.

On Thursday evening, May 26th, Miss Magdalen Dieter, Mrs. A. J. and J. V. Dieter, entertained about forty relatives and friends at a 500 party at the home of the latter in North Main street, in honor of Miss Benetrix Schmitt, a June bride. Refreshments were served after which the happy couple were presented with a handsome present.

Miss Cora Mochel entertained last Thursday evening at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Glen Timke, nee Grace Haumesser. Twelve young ladies made up the party and many and useful were the gifts showered on this young bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus Peterson celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary last Thursday night. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staffeldt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Peterson and family, Mr. Chas. Peterson and family and Miss Anna Tack. The evening was pleasantly spent ending with the serving of light refreshments.

Miss Elsie Pischel returned Sunday night from Los Angeles, Calif., where she attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Lester Gervig, Monday. The Rev. Frank Huling, a former Downers Grove boy, preached the service and there were many former Downers Grove residents present at Ingwood cemetery where the burial took place.

A recital will be given by the Dramatic pupils of Miss Hortense E. Goss and music pupils of Natalie Ka-tet of the Anne Tomlinson School of Music, affiliated with the Sherwood Music School of Chicago, at Marquette Hall, So. Fifth avenue, La Grange, Ill., on June 10th, at 8 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested.

Mr. Fred Babcock of Evanston, who formerly lived here, was a visitor at St. Andrew's Church last Sunday afternoon and spoke before a meeting of the Young People's Club. An organization for young people known as Gamma Kappa Delta has been most successful at St. Luke's Church, Evanston, and other parishes in the Diocese of Chicago and Mr. Babcock came out to see about installing a chapter in Downers Grove.

Those present were the Misses Helen and Bernice Thatcher, Ruth Diener, Gloria Farrar, Mildred Potter, Lucille Schultz, Helen and Ethel Phelps, Adelaide Walter, Bernice Littleford and Mesdames A. Michel, A. Kidwell, W. F. Heintz, R. Block and A. Gardiner.

Capt. R. D. Parker has again put Downers Grove on the map. The Indian Fellowship League, U. S. A., of which he had the honor to command in the First Division in the Decoration Day parade in Chicago, the only society permitted to counter march on Michigan avenue during the march of other commands. The Indians, the real Americans, were applauded from one part of the line to the other, and it is now known that the Indians, through the efforts of Capt. Parker have a society that is a credit to their race, our country and he hope to merit the support of at least a part of that which has been given to our foreign born members of other societies.

This is a National Bank

That means—At least TWICE A YEAR the U. S. Government sends a Bank Examiner to look at all the collateral accepted on loans, count the money required to be kept in reserve and look into every transaction. Thus Uncle Sam is looking after your money that is deposited with us for safekeeping to see that no improper loans are made.

This explains why so many people PREFER a National Bank.
