The Tatapochon Camp Fire Girls want to go to camp this summer. To make the dream come true they will serve supper at Library Hall June 30 between 6 and 8:30. Be there. 75 cents a plate.

Miss Marjorie Whiffen has been spending the past week at Urbana attending the Commencement exercises of the University of Illinois. She has been the guest of her cousin, Benton DeGroot, who graduated from the College of Agriculture.

The local baseball team plays the Chicago City Hall team next Sunday at Memorial Park. They lost their first game last Sunday but the finish was just to the fan's liking; full of thrills and tense moments. Come out and help them win.

Next week Saturday, June 25th, members of Grove Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will be guests of Sincerity Lodge on the North Side. The lodge will open at one o'clock and supper will be served at six. Officers of the local lodge will take the stations and confer the degree on the evening candidate.

Miss Ruth Briggs of North Prince avenue, was hostess last Saturday to a number of her co-workers of the Standard Advertising Service Co., of Chicago. Miss Briggs took the girls out to a picnic in her car. Mrs. R. C. Briggs and daughter, Elizabeth, accompanied them.

Miss Bessie Edsall has been here on a visit with Mrs. J. Clifford and daughters. Miss Edsall's many friends were glad to greet our former High School teacher who has an enviable reputation as one of the best teachers we have ever had in our High School.

J. W. Tucker is planning to leave the village about the middle of July for a visit to his birthplace at Charlton, Mass. Mr. Tucker has two brothers and three sisters there whom he has not seen in nearly twenty years and will stay until the middle of September.

Dorothy Gish, Paramount Artcraft Star. STAR DUST (Advertisement)

James Rennie, who plays the role of husband to Dorothy Gish in private life, played the same role in the picture "Flying Pot," this is now delighting the fans of movielom. Think of it boys, courting the girl you want to marry and getting big pay for it!

Whether Miss Gish will select the same gentleman for the role of hubby in future pictures now that the legal knot is tied remains to be seen.

Kathlyn Williams, who used to play in wild animal thrillers, has a delightful role in Thomas Meighan's picture, "Conrad in Quest of His Youth." It is the beautiful Margaret Loomis, however, who wins the screen love of the irresistible Tom. Meighan's ability as an actor was bound to win him success in pictures but with such stars to support him and the DeMilles to direct his pictures his rise to fame has been more rapid than that of any other star of recent years.

He is the only star who ever attained real fame before he was made a star. "Civilian Clothes" was his first starring vehicle but his work in the "Miracle Man," "Male and Female" and the "Prince Chap," made him a favorite before "Civilian Clothes" was made.

Catherine Calvert, who played the heroine in "Dead Men Tell No Tales," may be seen again in Vitagraph's newest super-picture, "The Heart of Maryland." The picture is taken from the stage play of the name, which was written by the world famous David Belasco.

Never was a more appealing love story told than "The Heart of Maryland" and the picture which was taken on the famous battlegrounds of the South should be one of the favorites of the year.

Dr. C. C. Butler returned last Sunday from San Antonio, Texas, where he has been staying for his health for the past several months. He has throat trouble from the effects of gas received in France while serving with the British and American forces during the World War.

The dates for the Redpath Chautauqua under the auspices of the American Legion have been announced from July 28th to August 2d. This is the second year the Legion has sponsored this week of talent for the village and they expect that this year the Chautauqua will out rival the success of 1920.

Grove Chapter, No. 230, R. A. M., held a special meeting last night and conferred the Royal Arch Degree on three candidates. This will be the last meeting of the summer as the chapter will take a vacation from all work until September. The local body has been busy all winter adding to its membership.

Fred Heinke made the catch of the season at Carpentersville last Sunday in the Fox river when he landed 18 black bass running from one to two and a quarter pounds. Fred sticks to crawfish as the best bait for the big ones and usually demonstrates he has the right dope 'cause he gets 'em when the artificial bait fishermen come back empty handed.

Miss Kathryn Schabel of New Orleans, arrived in Downers Grove, on Monday, June 15th, to spend the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Farrar of West Maple avenue. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Antoinette Krogh, who will stay the balance of the month.

Ten women helped Mrs. Charles Wolf of Rogers street celebrate her birthday on Wednesday afternoon. Needless to say they had a very fine time and enjoyed the splendid lunch. Those present were Mesdames Julius and Arthur Severus, E. Marchand, J. Staiger, Philip Mochel, Elmer Mochel, Carl Wolf and Julius Oestmann from the Grove and Charles and Herman Holz of Chicago.

Leonard Butler hired a man in Chicago last Thursday to work on the farm. He came out with him and the next morning between the time he was called at 4:36 and breakfast, the young fellow, about twenty years of age and giving the name of Ed. Barrett, disappeared with Mr. Butler's very valuable watch, given him by his mother thirty-five years ago. He also took Leonard's wedding ring. No trace has been found of either.

The Lemon home was the scene of a delightful garden party on Friday, June 10th. The Nature Study Class were the guests and luncheon was served in the bird garden, and although it rained at times, it in no way dampened the ardor of the guests for the enjoyment of the day. The final meeting for the year is to be held with Mrs. Dowle at the Walter Lyman homestead on the Plank Road, June 24th—luncheon at 12:00.

The Arcadian Club held a reception last Friday evening, June 10th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Heintz in Saratoga avenue, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raynor. Miss Helen Benning was hostess. Appropriate games were played and refreshments served, the bride and the groom being presented with a telephone stand and chair as slight tokens of appreciation from the members of the club.

About fifty members of the Ladies Aid Society of Bethany Church, Chicago, arrived in Downers Grove Wednesday morning at 11:30. It was their intention to surprise their former pastor, the Rev. Wm. Grotefeld, but as they alighted from the train the surprise was the other way for they found the pastor awaiting them. He escorted them to the parsonage in Grove street where the ample lunch was unpacked and a picnic dinner enjoyed.
