STAR DUST (Advertisement)

Elsie Ferguson will soon appear in a Paramount Picture with Wallace Reid.
Several years ago a film was made under the supervision of Col. Cody, (Buffalo Bill) showing life in the early days in the West.

Dorothy Gish, the funniest girl on the screen, has outshone all her former work in making the "Ghost in the Garret."

Few screen stars have had the rapid rise to fame that has befallen Gladys Walton. Only a few months ago she began her screen career as an unknown girl of seventeen.

The work of Priscilla Dean in "Outside the Law," was a sensation but in her latest picture "Reputation" her work is of such calibre that her press agents seem justified in calling her the greatest actress on the American screen.

Gertrude Hlmstead, winner of the Elks' $10,000 beauty contest, is still playing in two reel Western pictures with that amiable cowboy, Hoot Gibson.

New York has adopted state censorship, which means that there will be no Shakespeare in the movies as far as New York is concerned.

MASONS VISIT IN CHICAGO

A number of local Masons were guests at Sincerity Lodge, No. 98, A. F. & A. M., of Chicago, last Saturday evening. John W. Jenkins and his corps of officers conferred the third degree on the evening candidate in a very impressive manner.
