SCHEDULE OF MAILS

Table with columns: Time, From, To, Direction. Includes Central Time Incoming Mails and Outgoing Mails.

"Gone to the Dogs."

The ancient Romans called the ace in dice "canis," the Latin word for dog. To them three aces was to lose the pot in their gaming, whence came the saying "gone to the dogs" as a synonym for ruin or bad luck.

The Air We Breathe.

A cubic foot of air weighs about one and three-tenths ounces. Thus it is reckoned that a single human individual breathes in 12 months six and one-fifth tons of air.

Pimentos Not Canned in Oil.

The Department of Agriculture says that it is a mistaken idea that oil is added in canning pimentos. They say that pimentos contain in themselves a natural oil which is sufficient for the purpose.

As She Saw the Elephant.

Little Catherine, aged four, saw an elephant at a circus for the first time. Looking at it, she exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, look at the f... horse with a tail near his eyes!"

India's Fighting Sports.

In no other country has so much attention been given to the preparing and training of beasts and birds for fighting as in India. Rams, buffaloes, elephants, rhinoceroses, camels, stallions and even the gazelle, which, although famed for its gentle nature, is a pretty pugnacious little chap when aroused, have been matched against one another for the entertainment of rajahs and their subjects.

Men and Women.

Man cannot degrade woman without himself falling into degradation; he cannot elevate her without at the same time elevating himself. — Alexander Walker.
