

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kidwell left on Monday evening for an extended trip of the west, they will go as far as Vancouver and will visit Los Angeles and intermediate points.

The Woman's Guild and Auxiliary of S. Andrew's Church, announces an Ice Cream Social for Friday evening, July 22d, on the church lawn. You are cordially invited to attend. In case of rain the event will be held in the Church School Rooms.

Mrs. Maud Allen, of DesPlaines, came here Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Laura Smith, who has been visiting her for a month. Mrs. Smith makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Edw. Emrich and Mrs. Allen visited with her until Wednesday.

Tuesday evening, July 19th, 1921, members of the Semper Paratus Class to Belmont did hike to see Arthur Taylor, who works there with all his might. Then they journeyed to Anton Broberg's so fair and so tall, where homemade cake and cold milk was enjoyed by all.

A concert will be given at La Grange Fifth Avenue a week from Thursday night, July 28th, by the La Grange Suburban Band. Downers Grove people are cordially invited to drive over and hear some good music as several of the players in the band are Downers Grove men.

About thirty members of Downers Grove Lodge, No. 750, I. O. O. F., surprised George Schindler, Sr., last Monday evening at his home, after the lodge meeting, the occasion being his 57th birthday. Sandwiches, coffee, cake, and ice cream were served and a jolly good time was had.

Arthur Schlauder attended the second annual reunion of the Marne Division at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on July 13th, 14th and 15th, meeting many old pals from the date of his enlistment. Mr. P. Reno, of Camp Park, Little Rock, and Mr. Ed. Johnson, of Rockford, returned with him and spent the week end as his guest.

Messrs. Boldebeck, Friis, Plunkett and Cox, owners of Highland avenue frontage in the Fuller block, have each purchased the lot adjoining at the rear. This cleans up the last of these two blocks which F. D. Lindley was instrumental in subdividing 8 years ago, with the exception of two pieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Curtiss returned from Cedar Lake, Ind., where they have been staying with relatives, to meet their daughter, Mary, who arrived from the east where she has been for a month. The family expect to motor to the lake region in the vicinity of Oconomowoc, Wis., for the balance of their vacation.

Miss Ethel E. Johnson leaves tomorrow night over the C. M. & St. P. for Iricana, Alberta, Canada, for a visit with her sister, Mrs. R. A. Hansen. Miss Johnson expects to stay until Christmas when her sister and baby daughter, Doris, will accompany her home for a visit with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Johnson, of Blodgett avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Parks and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Nelson, returned last Sunday evening from a two weeks automobile vacation thru Wisconsin. They fished for the big ones in the lakes around Minocqua but the excessive heat through that region was against them. On the return they visited the Dells of the Wisconsin river.

and is notable for the large number of return dates he is called upon to fill.

Fine Music.

The Hippie Concert Company, that appears on the first afternoon, gives a program of unique musical variety. Earl Hippie, feature artist of the company, is widely known as "The Wizard of the Xylophone;" and the other members of the company are experienced artists and entertainers of proved popularity.

Gretchen Cox, appearing with her company on the second afternoon, has captivated audiences in all parts of the United States. Popular ensemble numbers as well as a sympathetic interpretation of the best in music render the program a distinct musical event. The company also gives a prelude at night.

White Hussars

A musical event extraordinary will be the appearance on the third day of Dunbar's White Hussars, band and male chorus, directed in person by Harry Raschig, well-known cornetist and band leader. The name of Ralph Dunbar, noted Chicago producer and organizer of the company, sets a seal of superiority on the musicianship and entertaining ability of of this splendid aggregation.

Following a prelude by the Hussars on the third afternoon, Beulah Buck, dramatic reader, will present a thoroughly delightful program of well-chosen selections splendidly rendered.

"Nothing But the Truth"

"Nothing But the Truth," widely-known comedy success, will be presented by a New York cast on the fourth night. As a novel by Frederick Isham, it was read by millions. From first to last this rollicking comedy inspires a constant gale of merriment.

On the fifth day "Daddy" Grobecker, as he is affectionately called by his people, brings his company of Swiss Yodlers for a full afternoon program and an evening prelude. The company is composed of genuine Swiss Yodlers and present a program of novel educational and entertaining features.

The last night, widely known as Joy Night, comes as a fitting climax to a distinctly up-to-the-minute program. Alton Packard, master cartoonist and humorist extraordinary, presents a comedy musical and cartoon revue. Mr. Packard is known the country over for his picturesque humor, his pictorial philosophy and fun.

Story Hour for Children

In accordance with the long standing policy of the Redpath management a special story hour will be conducted each morning or afternoon for the children. A thoroughly trained young woman will have charge of this work, for which no admission is charged. The stories are sure to prove a delight and a treat to the youngsters.

FREE CONCERT IN CHATAQUA TENT SUNDAY, JULY 31st

Woman's Club and St. Paul's Evangelical Church Co-Operate Musical Evening.

The Union Services of Sunday, July 31st, will be under the auspices of the Woman's Club of Downers Grove and St. Paul's Evangelical Church. By the courtesy of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau of Chicago, and the American Legion of Downers Grove, who are conducting a Chautauqua here, their tent will be turned over to the Open Air Meeting for the evening of July 31st, free of charge.

A two-part program will be supplied for that evening. The first part of the program, in which the Womans Club shares the expense, consists of music. The Civic Music Association of Chicago, secured for us the artists, Mr. Frank Parker, baritone soloist; Miss Nesta Smith, violinist; and Miss Margaret Wilson, accompanist, who will furnish the music for the program. The names of these artists alone give guarantee that a rare musical treat will be furnished to the public of Downers Grove that evening.

The speaker of the evening will be the Rev. Fred Frankensfeld of Rochester, New York.

This concert is free and takes the place of the regular Open Air Service on the M. E. lawn. The public is most cordially invited.

PLANS FOR NEW PARISH SCHOOL WERE LAUNCH'D

The people of St. Joseph's are united on this program of better educational facilities for their children in a way that bids fair to set a new record and the next few weeks promise to be chock full of activity for every one connected with the church.
