During the past week six lots have been sold for building purposes by Edward G. Lemon & Co., two on No. Main street, two in Lyman's addition, one in Bunge's subdivision and one on Elm street.
The Reporter force took a day off Monday and attended the Graphic Arts Exposition. Glenn Weatherbee, who despite his years, is quite a printer, was enthusiastic. He wanted every automatic machine he saw.

Ray McCollum has bought a desirable building lot on North Main st. above Prairie and expects to build a home there later on. The lot was owned by Mrs. Whiffen of Washington, D. C., formerly of Downers and was sold by Edward G. Lemon & Co.
The Epworth League of the M. E. Church, gave a "kid" party in the church parlors Tuesday evening. The "kid" part was the costumes, as all came dressed as they did when in say, about fourth grade. In classic language, "A very good time was had by all."
Harold Clarke has a very bad eye as the result of cranking a tractor on the Lacey farm south of Lisle.

The crank slipped striking him under the left eye cutting a deep gash and leaving a bad bruise. Harold is taking a few days vacation in his "shady rest" home on the banks of the East Branch giving his eye a chance to heal. It is considered lucky that the crank hit where it did and not a half inch higher or there might be a different story.

The story of a girl who made a god of a man—asking no more, looking no higher, asking no further.

Mrs. Fisk made it a wonderful thing on the stage. It's appeal is in it's story of girl-mother love; it's strength in the talent of the players; its art in the power of the master who brought it to the screen.

Whitman Bennett presents his personally supervised production

OVER one hundred Nash automobiles in the Hinsdale distributor's territory! Many of these are owned by men who drove Nash cars before, and would buy no other. Each season finds the larger percentage of Nash cars in this territory, as it does all over the territory.

THERE'S A REASON
No car selling for the prices below gives a larger and more honest value—more performance, greater comfort, durability and driving pleasure. The very few changes made in the mechanism and design of the Nash in the past four years is evidence the NASH of today is PERFECT.
