At last a new supply of the motor guide and map issued by the Chicago Daily News has been secured for Reporter readers and is at J. L. Swearingen's for distribution. The Reporter secured an initial supply of 100 of these for distribution and they went like hot cakes. We said last week that a new supply would be ready by Friday but we were unable to secure them until Wednesday morning.

The Reporter would be glad to have anyone interested in motoring or needing a guide of this kind to call at Swearingen's and get a copy. They are free.

We have secured them for our readers and know from the many inquiries the past week that they will get them.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS ARE BEST!
She was a millionaire's only child, clad in modish togs.
He was a cow-boy, right off the range, in the worst-fitting suit that any American ever wore at any time in any place.
But he saw the real girlish sweetness and sincerity in her eyes.
And she saw a real man, one who "could lick his weight in wild cats!"
And nothing else mattered to either of them.
Just a chance passing in a crowded railway station, then he went his way and she went hers. But the memory like a well-known flavor, lasted, that was all. When they met again—
Come on in—the comedy's fine!

POLA NEGRI in "Gipsy Blood"

Come with Pola Negri through the languor-lanes of Old Seville, where the days are hot and slow, and the nights deep—purple—incensy.

Hers is the art that brooks no limit. To bind is to destroy a glorious creation.

Hers the fascination that transcends mere beauty. To deny it is to mock the appeal of an incomparable woman.

Thousands will pass before you. Kaleidoscopic panoramas will amaze you. Swift sweet flashes of wonderful wooing will call to you. But above all you'll ever remember the thrill of the Enchantress who holds a humble soldier with a love as ecstatic as the love of the world's immortal Beauties.
