SUGGEST CLOSING STORES FROM ONE TO FOUR SATURDAY

Boosters of Lisle Fair Say No One Will be in Town to Trade, So Why Stay Open?

A booster for the Lisle Community Fair tomorrow was in the shop yesterday morning when the suggestion that local business houses close on Saturday between the hours of one and four in the afternoon so that everyone can attend the Fair and enjoy it. He says the entire population of the village and surrounding country will be there, so why stay open. A similar movement is on foot in Naperville.

We doubt whether local business men will take kindly to the idea, as their Wednesday afternoon closing is considered holiday enough and Saturday is their busiest day.

Success Follows Perseverance. Success may not come in a day. It may not come in a week, a month or a year. It never does come in a day, a week or a month, or a year. But soon or late it is bound to come, and with gratifying fullness, if confidence is sustained despite all reverses, if effort is manfully maintained. Whoever follows this rule of faithful perseverance must in the end find a place among life's winners. For with repeated effort power grows. And power thus augmented proves irresistible at last. —H. Addington Bruce in Chicago Daily News.

JUNIOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPT. 21ST

Preparations Made to Take Care of Maximum Number of Children at Kindergarten.

Wednesday, September 21st, is the date set for the opening of the Junior Elementary school (the Kindergarten) on Grove street. Although there are many more applications than room for the children of the village; plans are rapidly being consummated to accommodate as many as possible.

The value of this institution to the community is incalculable. This year, especially, with public schools crowded, it takes the pressure off the lower grades. Then too, the class of work done there is such that it is almost impossible to duplicate in public schools.

Personal Inspection. An Irish captain inspecting his company noticed that one of his soldiers had neglected to wash either the back of his neck or his ears. "Hi, you!" he called to him; "you haven't washed yourself at the back! Right about face and look at yourself!"—Edinburgh Scotsman.

HINSDALE BOYS DAUBING PAINT —"JUST PRANKS"

Town Painted Red Monday Night by Thoughtless Young Men—Will Cost Parents Money.

Several thoughtless young men of Hinsdale, mere boys, in fact, painted that town red on Monday evening, but in the literal rather than the colloquial meaning of the word. With a can of red enamel they daubed newly painted houses, business places, automobiles, sidewalks, mailboxes and anything else which happened to strike their fancy. When through, the town certainly was painted red.

From reports received yesterday it is going to cost parents of the boys a neat sum of money to repair the damage done. At least one automobile will have to be repainted. Several houses will have to be painted on at least one exposure.

One of the mothers of the boys said when approached that "it was just a boyish prank" but the town fails to see it that way.

Weighing Without Scales. The resourcefulness of the Irish is shown in their method of weighing without scales. "To weigh a pig," said an Irishman the other day, "all ye have to do is to lay a plank across a sawhorse, place a big stone on one end of the plank and the pig on the other, then shift the plank until the two things balance. Then ye guess the weight of the stone and ye have the weight of the pig."—Boston Transcript.

Awful Moment. Anxious to get to church on time, as an interesting sermon on gambling was scheduled, I hustled around getting ready. Opening a bureau drawer I grabbed what I thought was my prayer book and rushed over to the church. Marching down the aisle I accidentally dropped my muff, and, lo! instead of my prayer book, a deck of cards came tumbling out and scattered in all directions! To make matters worse, the back of the cards bore the ad of a prominent brewery!—Grit.
