

Second Annual Lisle Community Fair Was a Successful Event

Thousands of Visitors Viewed Remarkable Collection of Exhibits Saturday.

The Second Annual Lisle Community Fair, held last Saturday in Edw. Riedy's Grove at the Lisle Road and Maple avenue, was an unqualified success, both from point of attendance and number and variety of exhibits.

Every department was overrunning with exhibits from the surrounding country and thousands of visitors, entry and city people alike, were present.

There were the usual features at fairs of this kind, the dancing, the eats, the displays of things used on the farm from autos to windmills, and Mr. and Mrs. and the children took them all in. After the judging an auction was held with Frank Stump, of Naperville, as auctioneer. Prize cakes and coffee cakes, pies and cookies, cabbage, and beans, pumpkins and what not, were knocked off to the highest bidder. Some of them went pretty cheap and others cost the purchasers more than they expected. The greatest interest in the fair, of course, centered in the exhibits in the various departments. These were many and varied, probably more of a variety than last year and of a better selection all the way through. Following is a list of the winners in the various departments:
