Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt and daughter, Lenore, and Mildred, and Mr. and Mrs. Bray and daughters, Margaret, Jeanette and Helen, and son, Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bedkey, Miss Anderson, all of Hinsdale, spent Sunday at the W. H. Thomas home on Warren avenue.

The S. E. 500 club held their first meeting at the home of Mrs. A. T. Ogrén, Monday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Felton, C. C. Parks, A. P. Nelson, A. R. Cramer, W. J. Staats, Harry Hall, W. Winchell and A. T. Ogrén. Mrs. Staats carried off first prize and Mrs. Hall the consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lacey entertained at a birthday dinner last Saturday evening at their farm home north of the village, in honor of Mrs. Scott Fry, Henry Duell and Mrs. Gilbert Lacey. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Fry, of Naperville, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lacey, of Downers Grove, Mr. George, Hazel and Henry Duell, of Lisle.

The operating instruments of two of the large Chicago hospitals are being kept in order at the Downers Grove factory operated by Mr. Julius Severus. Several new, electric-lighted instruments for the ear, nose and throat, also for dental work, have been originated at this plant in the past few weeks and found excellent by several expert operators.

Mrs. Martha McNaught, of Wilmette, was buried at Lockport this week. Mrs. McNaught was an old resident of Downers Grove and recently made her home with her niece, Mrs. Florence Bates Nourse. She had many friends here and was a woman who was left a widow by the Civil War, with one son, George, who died while a young man and bravely made her way for many years.

Charles Parks, who ordinarily keeps himself busy measuring cloth and other things at the McAllister store here, measured something else last Sunday in which he took a great deal of pleasure. As you know he is quite a fisherman—that is, he fishes a lot—well last Sunday he had the pleasure of measuring a twenty-one inch bass which weighed four and a quarter pounds. He captured the monster in Petite Lake.

Dr. Joseph R. Mitchell, of Washburn, Wis., was the guest of Capt. and Mrs. R. D. Parker, during the meeting of the American Association of Orifical Surgeons, held at the La Salle Hotel, last week. The doctor read a paper, "The Competitive System and Artificial Surgery." He is a regular contributor to the "Constructive Surgery and Medicine" magazine.

Friday afternoon Arthur Thomas was delightedly surprised at his home by a small number of his friends. The occasion being his tenth birthday. Games were played and refreshments served. A good time was had by all. Mrs. E. J. Williams, of Hinsdale, spent the day at the Thomas home. The boys included Ralph Knoblauch, Herbert Oestmann, Irving Zarr, Gerald Miller, Joseph Karsch and Dean Miller.

On the evening of Oct. 27th, Newton Harold Pearson, impersonator, of Chicago, will give an entertainment in the Methodist Church. During Mr. Pearson's Lyceum work he has given two entertainments in the 1st M. E. Church of Austin, and has the endorsement of the pastor, J. S. Ladd Thomas. Mr. Pearson appears on programs with Preston Graves and Miss Margaret Conrad, who furnished musical numbers for the Woman's Club reception.

Mrs. George Heintz, of No. Forest avenue, was quiet pleasantly surprised last Monday afternoon when her grandson, Everett Rauh and his grand-dad, Mr. George Rauh, of Hinsdale, called on her. The little fellow is not quite three years old and the two visitors walked to Downers Grove from Hinsdale. The boy's mother, formerly Cora Heintz, had told the boy there were no trains running when he asked to go to see his grandmother, so he decided to walk, so anxious was he to see her. Some stunt for a three year old.

Miss Gloria Farrar entertained the Delta Sigma Phi sorority girls last Friday evening at a shower in honor of Miss Bernice Thatcher, who is to be an early November bride. Many useful kitchen utensils were presented Miss Thatcher with a shower of best wishes for a long life of happiness. Dainty refreshments were served and the party stayed until a late hour. Those present were the Misses Helen and Bernice Thatcher, Naomi Eichelmann, Gloria Farrar, Ruth Diener, Adelaide Walter, Irene Bryan, and Mesdames Goltry, Griffiths and Thulin.

Mr. S. S. Vernon and Mrs. Vernon, attended the Home Coming at Northwestern University, Evanston, last Saturday. Others from Downers Grove who were seen about the campus and at the football game between Northwestern and Wisconsin University were: Carl Carlson, Chester Winter, Roland Modjeska, Leroy Sullivan, Glenn Weatherbee, Norman Anderson, Raymond Schultz and Arthur Jenness. The last two mentioned are students at the Methodist college.

There will be a matinee at the S. Andrew's Church Bazaar at Dicke's Hall next Wednesday afternoon from three until five o'clock for the children and all those who cannot attend in the evening. The Bazaar will be open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings from seven until eleven o'clock. The Young People's Club is rehearsing an entertainment which is expected to be quite a novel surprise to many in the community. Dicke's Hall will be elaborately decorated for the event. No admission charge will be made for the Bazaar.

Capt. Parker had one of the most interesting exhibits that was displayed at Marshall Field's, the past two weeks. He furnished the oldest looking glass ever brought to the city also the most valuable documents in existence pertaining to Camp Douglas, during the year 1861. He had the pictures of the men who built the first brick house in Chicago, and a picture of Jow Howard, who was brakeman on the first passenger train that started from Chicago, and one of Edwin Brown, who sold the first ticket on the Chicago & Galena R. R. with over a hundred valuable documents of prominent people of Chicago from 1836 to 1871 and he has many more which he has given to the Historical Society. And the one he prizes the most is the first picture ever printed of Lincoln after he had been nominated as President in the old wigwam at Market and Lake streets, Chicago, 1860.

On Friday, November 4th, 8:00 p. m., a chorus concert will be given at St. Paul's Evangelical Church, Grove Street, under the auspices of the Young People's League of that church. Mrs. Earl Whidden is the instructor and directress and Miss Eloise Klein the accompanist. Soloists at this concert will be Miss Mathilda Reiners and Mr. Rudolph Reiners, of Chicago.

The Ladies of St. Paul's Evangelical Grove Street Church, will give their annual chicken pie dinner on Tuesday, November 8th, at the parlors of the church.

Mrs. Wm. Straube and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Straube, of Chicago, spent the week end as guests of the Wallace Heckman's at Eagle Nest, in the artists colony on the Rock river near Oregon, Illinois.

Wm. Straube is expected home this week after a month's business trip to old Mexico.

The movie, "Handuffs and Kisses," with Elaine Hammerstein, which will be given the evening of Monday, November 7th, by the Vesta Juniors, promises to draw a crowded house. This is one of the ways in which this organization hopes to raise money for the proposed Downers Grove Masonic Temple.

May Allison, in the famous play, "Held in Trust," is the principle attraction at the Curtiss Theatre Saturday night. Joe Martin the "missing link," will also be seen in one of his famous comedies. 10-21-1

Don't forget that there will be only one showing of the "Affairs of Anatol" each evening. The doors of the Curtiss Theatre will open at 7:15. The music will begin at 7:45, the short pictures at 8:00 and the feature picture at 8:30. Come early so you will not miss the music and singing. 21-1

The admission to the "Affairs of Anatol" will be 40 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The increase is made not because it is the most costly production ever shown here, which it is, but because the producing company will not permit the picture to be shown at a lower admission price. 10-21-1

Mr. Clarke Kessler, the noted pianist of the University of Chicago, may be heard at the Curtiss Theatre when the "Affairs of Anatol" is shown. Mr. Kessler's services have been much sought after by the large theatres of Chicago but he has refused their offers as he wishes to complete his course at the U. of C. He has consented to play here occasionally only because of the large number of friends he has in Downers Grove. Don't fail to hear him. 21-1
