Mr. Lloyd Norris, of Seibert and Norris, successors to Dr. Puffer, in the drug business, conducted successfully for so many years at the corner of Main and Curtis streets, has demonstrated his intention of making Downers Grove his permanent home, by buying property here. He has purchased the new two story stucco house at 109 No. Forest ave., built by Kerchner & Deach and sold by Edward G. Lemon & Co. A garage will be built of the same material as the house and the place will be complete in every detail. The house is not yet finished but every effort will be made to have it completed so that Mr. Norris and family may move in on or about the first of November.
