

WOMEN BOWLERS
"HIT THE WOOD"
ON WEDNESDAY

To Meet at Home of Mrs. Tank in Near Future and Organize Bowling League.

Twenty local ladies met at the Dicke Alleys Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of "hitting the wood" and getting acquainted with the proper way to hold a bowling ball for good effect. They rolled for several hours, just practicing, no scores being kept at this first attempt.

Later the women will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Tank where a league will be organized and rules adopted.

Those present Wednesday were: Mesdames Parks, A. P. Nelson, Ralston, Schwartz, Stephens, Coles, C. Mochel, Downes, Burns, Briggs, Balczynski, Mitchell, Clarke, Tank, Austin and Barry and the Misses Peterson, Winter and Baer.

MR. AND MRS. J. J. LYNCH ENTERTAIN HALLOWE'EN EVE

Chicken Supper and Games Enjoyed by Guests Until Late Hour Monday Evening.

Nine years ago, on Halloween, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lynch moved into their present home in East Grove, and since that time have celebrated the anniversary with a Halloween party.

Monday evening the Lynch home was the scene of the annual affair when a chicken supper started one of the most enjoyable Halloween parties held this year. Games of all kinds were played in the home which had been prettily decorated for the occasion and a happy and contented party of guests sat down to a lunch after midnight.

Prizes for the games were won by Miss Gladys Erickson and Dr. George F. Timpke. The consolation awards were made to Mrs. George Timpke and Joseph Noeth.

SOUTH WESTMONT ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mochel and family and Mr. Will Klein attended the box social in the district 107 school house and had a jolly time with the residents of that district. Miss Ruth Vial is the teacher.

Mrs. J. S. Hamilton, of Bangor, Mich., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. G. C. Mercker last week. Last Friday a few relatives and friends gathered at the Maercker home for a visit.

Mr. George Oldfield of Fairfax, Mo. is visiting with the Geo. Maercker family and the C. F. Roe family in the Grove.

Mrs. Kirsch is on the sick list with a bad cold.

CONGREGATIONAL
C. E. HELD ANNI-VERSARY DINNER

Past, Present and Future Told in Talks at Church on Wednesday Night.

The past, the present and the future of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational Church, was told Wednesday evening at a banquet held in the church parlors to celebrate the second anniversary of the founding of the Congregational branch of the society here.

During and following the splendid repast music was rendered by the Sunday School orchestra.

The Rev. A. S. Phelps, pastor of the church, acted as toastmaster. The speakers were Walter Johnstone on the Past; A. C. Miskelly, the Present and Jack Reed, the Future.

The talks were inspiring and the whole atmosphere of the banquet and the informal meeting which followed showed that this society is working together and working for good.

ENTERTAINED FOR THIRTY-FOUR ON HALLOWE'EN EVE

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Craigmile Hosts to Gay Party at Home in North Forest Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Craigmile were hosts to thirty-four young people on Monday evening at their home in No. Forest avenue. The occasion was a Halloween party and the house was prettily decorated for the occasion. Autumn leaves lined the walls, with little devil's heads, black cats and witches peering out from every side.

The guests were masked in costumes which defied detection and the evening passed all too rapidly in the playing of appropriate games. Dancing was indulged in, the costumes of the guests, the candle light, and the weird atmosphere induced by the decorations, making the shifting scene one of beauty.

Refreshments were served at a late hour and the guests departed making the air vibrate with noises from the favors distributed at the party.
