

NEWSY NOTES FROM LISLE AND BELMONT

Sunday School at 9:45.
Worship and Sermon 10:45.
Subject: "The Golden Rule."
The church has a welcome for all.
On Friday evening, January 27, the Bible Class meets for its monthly social with Mr. and Mrs. A. T.
Lacey, 87 E. Curtiss street, Downers Grove.

Rev. A. T. Lacey and Mrs. Ed.
Boss attended a special meeting of the Aurora Association of Congregational churches at Aurora on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bober and little son, are home from the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joy Morton have gone to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Riedy are the proud parents of a nine pound son born January 18. Mother and son are doing fine and are in the St.
Charles hospital, Aurora.

Miss Margaret Rogers visited the school of Religious Education at Naperville, on Monday.

The Belmont Improvement Club held their regular meeting in the schoolhouse on Friday evening. Mr.
Carneross was the speaker. The meeting was enjoyed by a good attendance of the community.

The public installation of officers and social given by the Modern Woodman Camp on Tuesday evening was well attended. Mr. Henry Mey is the newly married member and he and his bride were showered with rice and good wishes. The old and new dances were enjoyed. Refreshments were served and a very good time was had until the wee, small hours.

the sick list for a few days but is now back at school.

MARY MacDOWELL SPEAKS TO CLUB WOMEN FEB. 1st

Guests From Suburbs to be Present Next Wednesday at "Open Door Day" Here.

Mary MacDowell, of the University of Chicago Settlement, prominent club woman of Chicago, and internationally known for her settlement and civic work, will be the speaker next Wednesday afternoon, February 1, at Library Hall.

It is "open door day" at the Down-ers Grove Womens Club and club women from the suburbs along the Burlington will be present to hear this gifted woman. Miss MacDowell will take as her topic, "Womans Contribution to Politics." It is a subject she knows and those who attend should be more than repaid.

Ms. E. Morgan is the leader of the current events part of the program, which is proving to be one of the interesting parts of the club meetings.

Music for the afternoon will be furnished by two gifted young ladies of the community. Miss Zita Norpell will sing and Miss Beatrice Anthony will give a violin solo.

The excellence of the program should prove an attraction and a large attendance be the result.

ADVICE

Who gives it? Most anyone — if you'll listen. It is one of the few cheap survivors of the ravages of war and the H. C. L.

But—What's it worth?

Baptist Church of Downers Grove.
Solomon Melek, S. T. B., Th. M., Th. D., LL. M., J. D., B. A., M. A., Lit. M., Ph. D., M. Sc., Mus. B., Arch. B., B. E. M. (thru Rev. A. H.
Kehrl) will give "A Word to the Wise."

Special service for Young People of Downers Grove. (Older folk are welcome).

EX-SERVICE MAN FOR COUNTY CLERK

(Advertisement)

Clarence V. Wagemann, of Wren-ton, Illinois, left his home and widowed mother and enlisted in the U.
S. Army shortly after our country declared war on Germany.

He fought on every sector in France until he had his leg shot off in the battle of the Argonne.

The least that we can do is to give him our votes in the Republican Primaries on April 11, 1922. 1-27-4

LA GRANGE POLICE LOCATE COMPLETE MOONSHINE OUTFIT

Two Hundred Gallons of Wine, Still, Mash and Hootch Confiscated in Maslek Home

The home of Albert Maslek, 234 Sawyer avenue, LaGrange, was raided several days ago by the police of that village. A tip had been received from a drunk picked up on the street that booze was being manufactured there and a search warrant secured.

All Chief Matthews and his raiders found were two hundred gallons of wine, a complete whiskey still, five gallons of moonshine and a barrel of mash. Maslek was arrested and released later on real estate bonds to the value of $2,500.

The police are now sure that they have closed the headquarters of a band of bootleggers who have been operating in that classical suburb.
