

BOWLING NOTES

The race in the Business Men's League continues to be the crowning subject for discussion among members of that league. Bakers Buns are still leading by one game with the Mochel Butchers and the Reporter lives right on their heels, being tied for second place. Three teams are tied for third and the rest are trailing.

No less exciting is the race in the "big" league. The Cubs are leading by one game with Klein's Richelieus, who have been holding the stellar position, in second place. Right behind and coming strong are Hoehn's Clippers and the East Ends.

Albrecht of the White Sox scored high game, 218 and high average, 197 2-3, for the week. He fell down in his last game to 173, missing the chance for a 200 average.

In the Women's league the Happy Go Lucky five are a few games ahead of the Ringleaders who are threatening to step into the lead. It is a pretty race and the women are regular bowling fans.
