ANNUAL FARMERS' INSTITUTE WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

ably presented to the Institute by J. W. Brooks. A motion was adopted instructing the officers to confer with the executive committee of the farm bureau regarding donations of corn and cash.
The household science section held an afternoon meeting in the county court room. Mrs. E. P. McDonald, a former state lecturer of the W. C. T. U. presented scientific temperance instruction and Miss Sims of the University of Illinois discussed the essentials of good housekeeping.

Report of Resolutions Committee.

Report of resolutions committee of the DuPage Farmers' Institute adopted January 28, 1922.
Whereas, in point of attendance and excellence of program and exhibits, the Institute of 1922 has never been excelled in DuPage County, and Whereas, these institutions are of utmost importance in developing a permanent and profitable system of agriculture.

Carneross for his expert advice and his leadership in the advancement of the agricultural interests of DuPage County.

Resolved, That we recommend the early organization of a Home Bureau for DuPage County, which association will play the same part among the women of the county as does the Farm Bureau among the farmers.

Resolved that we go on record as most heartily endorsing the recent action of the Board of Supervisors in the patrolling of the roads of our county, which work we believe to be one of the most commendable looking toward the permanent upkeep of our roads at least cost, and in this connection, be it further

Resolved, That we request the Board of Supervisors to expediate any plans that may be necessary toward the early completion of the projected north and south hard roads of the County, inasmuch as we believe that the good roads are of the greatest importance to the farmers, and a most valuable asset.

Resolved, That the Near East Relief work is hereby endorsed and that the farmers of this county who feel able are urged to give grain or money for the relief of the destitute families of the farmers in Armenia and other Bible lands, and in conclusion,

Be it resolved, That whereas our very capable president, Irving Goodrich, feeling that the honor of holding the presidency of this Institute is one which should be shared and has therefore, refused to be considered a candidate for re-election to that office.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that we extend a hearty vote of thanks to him for his efficient and painstaking work during the past three years in the building up to its present efficiency this DuPage County Farmers' Institute and making of this Institute the success that it is today.

NOTICE

Downers Grove, Ill., Jan. 2, 1922.
To All Whom It May Concern:
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name and style of MERTZ & MOCHEL, engaged in the hardware, coal and food business at No. 26 South Main street, in the village of Downers Grove, County of DuPage and State of Illinois, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent.

EX-SERVICE MAN FOR COUNTY CLERK

(Advertisement)
Clarence V. Wagmann, of Wheaton, Illinois, left his home and widow mother and enlisted in the U. S. Army shortly after our country declared war on Germany. He fought on every sector in France until he had his leg shot off in the battle of the Argonne. The least that we can do is to give him our votes in the Republican Primaries on April 11, 1922. 1-27-4
