The Boy Scouts will be guests at this service. The public is cordially invited.

The sacred season of Lent, commemorating the last forty days of Christ's earthly life, or the forty days preceding Easter, has just begun. We should be especially thoughtful during this season concerning the significance of Christianity.

During this season First Evangelical Church will magnify the Christ with special sermons by the pastor and outside speakers, with special musical programs of devotional and inspirational character and we cordially invite the folks of the community who have not chosen a church home to worship with us in "The Friendly Church."
