

PERSONALS

Mr and Mrs F. J. Scherrer, of Tarrytown, N. Y., and Miss Ida Hecht, of Newark, N. J., brother-in-law and sister of O. Edw. F. Hecht, were his guests for four days this week.

Mrs. Motsett entertained last Friday afternoon the following ladies at her home in North Saratoga avenue: Mesdames F. F. Chessman, Rogers, Jonas Foster, Frank Keiser, Silick, and C. H. Staats and Miss Emma Lloyd.

Mrs. Elisha Morgan gave a very enjoyable informal dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Jeanette Rankin and Mrs. Lottie O'Neill. The guests were the captains of the various wards, Mrs. Prince, Mrs. Lemon and Mrs. Fisher, acting for the Lottie Holman O'Neill club.

Mrs. Lawrence Felton entertained the S. E. club Monday afternoon. Mrs. A. Ray Cramer won the first prize, Mrs. Clarence Shambo, second and Mrs. W. Winchell, consolation. An extra prize, offered by Mrs. A. T. Ogren was captured by Mrs. C. C. Parks. Five hundred was played.

The Womans Missionary Society of the Congregational church, will meet with Mrs. Guy L. Bush, 102 Gilbert avenue, Friday, April 14. It will be the thank offering day for home missions. Speakers will be Mrs. Mathews of LaGrange and Mrs. Loveland of the village. All members and friends are urged to attend.

The treasurer's committee of the Young People's Alliance of the First Evangelical church announce that the Girls' Glee club of North-Western college have set aside Tuesday evening, April 25 as the date they will sing here. Some weeks intervene but it is well to place this concert on your list of reserved dates. The Evangelical church is the place and tickets will be on sale in the near future.

The Wild Flower Preservation Society held their regular monthly meeting last Thursday afternoon. Constitution and by-laws were adopted. Signs for the forest preserve are being printed. They were copied from those used in Boston parks and will add interest to the visits to the woods as they are quotations but all point toward preservation of the flowers. The annual meeting of the society is set for the last Thursday in May.

Mrs. John Reed of South Washington street, was hostess to the Nature Study class last Friday. It being the birthday of Mrs. Reed added to the enjoyment of the delicious luncheon served at noon. Aside from members of the class, Prof. Reed, Mr. Baker, father of Mrs. Reed and Master John Reed, were guests. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Whitehorn, Grand ave., Highland Acres, Friday, April 14. Luncheon at twelve.

Republican Candidate for Nomination for REPRESENTATIVE 41st Senatorial District

Have you ever seen your Representative in the Illinois legislature at any time except when he was campaigning for re-election? If nominated and elected, the people of every city and village in this district will find me during the next session of the legislature visiting every city and village in this Senatorial District. I will want the cooperation of the people, so that I may honestly and efficiently represent them.

George Barry, Jr., entertained a few friends yesterday afternoon the occasion being his fourth birthday. The little folks had a pleasant afternoon playing games and enjoying the dainty refreshments. Pretty and useful gifts were presented by the little tots. The guests were Marie Jane Hurley, Arthur Lautz, Betty Jane Staats, Lois and Arlene Winter, Betty Himes, Bobby and Laura Walker, Maxine, Dick and Alice Jane Simonson.

The Christ-centered messages of the Rev. Mr. Wilming during this week at the First Evangelical have brought the minds of many into the right attitude for the spiritual observance of Passion Week. The series of religious services will continue Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of next week. The people of the community are especially invited on the evening of Good Friday when Rev. Wilming will speak on "The Sayings of Christ upon the Cross." All week night services commence at 7:45 and all are welcome.
