

PERSONALS

Ground has been broken for the Owen Griffith home in Oakwood ave. Ernest Dawson has been under the weather for a few days. Some spring! Frosts, rains, cold winds and what not and Sunday a. m. the "summer" daylight saving starts. Mrs. Wm. Raddell, of LaGrange, was a week end guest at the Wm. Straube home in Fairmont avenue. Mr and Mrs Frank Dowe are nicely settled in their charming new bungalow in Saratoga avenue. Mr and Mrs King, of Oakwood ave. entertained guests from out of town on Sunday. Mr and Mrs Walter Vom Bruch will lead the music at the Baptist church during the evangelistic campaign. The S. A. Dexter brick bungalow in Carpenter street is rapidly nearing completion. Mr and Mrs Ed. Pfaff have moved into the Herman Hesse house, corner of Rogers and Washington. W. R. Davenport, George Helwig and Ernest Dawson have started work assembling their plane at Wheaton. Mrs M. D. Abercrombie has returned from a two weeks visit with her parents in Kansas. The kind of gospel you like to hear at the Baptist church every evening except Monday from April 30 to May 14. Minstrel show — the best ever — local talent — given by young men with a rep. for the benefit of the fire truck. Mrs. Wm. Roth, of Oakwood ave., left Wednesday evening to attend the funeral of John Kuhn, a cousin, at Witchata, Kansas. Mr and Mrs. Arthur Vanderpoel, and family are residents of the village and will build a handsome new home on their lot in Middaugh ave. Spend Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist church. You will hear two good sermons and good music too. Evangelist Harry W. Vom Bruch is going to preach at the Baptist church every evening, except Monday, beginning Sunday, April 30. Get all set for the big con show which will be given by a few young men from the village who desire to raise $500 for the fire truck. The date? Its May 15 and 16. Sure they've jokes about most everybody, the police force, the fire department, Village Council, your neighbors and perhaps about you. Don't miss this above all things. Mrs W. Boon and son spent Thursday in Galesburg, Ill. and accompanied Mrs Boon's mother to her son's home where she will make an extended visit. The Philathea class of the Methodist-Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. Gilbert Newland, Monday evening, May 1. A large attendance is desired. Kenneth Butela, of West Curtiss st. has recovered nicely from an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids, performed at St. Mary's hospital. Mr and Mrs Harry Walker and children are with their mother, Mrs. Fanny Wilson for a short time, while their home in North Main street, recently purchased, is being made ready for them. Mrs G. W. Hill and son, James Frederick, of Rock Island, and Mrs L. A. White, of Aurora, visited Wednesday with their brother, Arthur Sweet, at his home in North Main street. Mrs M. H. Prince, representing the village and Mrs George E. Bensley, representing the Bonaparte school district, are attending the state Parent-Teacher association convention in Chicago. The first of the season fish were not caught by Dr. A. R. Moore and Henry Kaut Wednesday afternoon. They braved the cold spring with a trip to Yorkville and the elusive black bass lived up to its name. The Oddfellows and Rebekahs made merry at a hard times party at Zindt hall Wednesday night. Dancing and bunco were the attractions of the evening which was greatly enjoyed by those attending. Geo. T. Schindler and family and W. J. Wenzel and family, of Carpenter street, attended the funeral of Mrs. Schindler's brother-in-law, Mr. Frank Hoskinson at Joliet on April 24. All members of the Royal Neighbors are urged to attend the meeting on Thursday, May 4, as a fine program appropriate for Mothers Day has been arranged. Come, and bring a friend. The Fellowship class of the M. E. church will meet Monday evening, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Luzier, 68 Saratoga avenue. Mrs. Harry Bryce and Miss Stout will assist the hostess. The building boom is on again in Downers Grove. It is reported that Linscott avenue is to be opened south to Maple avenue and plans are being made by one man to build ten homes in that section. The Congregational Ladies Aid society will meet Thursday, May 4 at 1:30 p. m., in the church parlors. The hostesses are Mrs Stough, and Mrs. Pfaff. A cordial welcome is extended to members and friends.

Evangelist Harry W. Vom Bruch preaches the old fashioned gospel. You can hear him at the Baptist church both Sunday morning and evening and every night except Monday for two weeks beginning Monday, April 30. The Philathea class of the Congregational church will meet Friday evening, May 5, at the home of Mrs T. S. Rogers, Carpenter street. Mrs. Stough will assist. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend. Two brand new tires were stolen from the S. T. Stephens car in front of the school last Friday night. The theft was discovered when the young man who stole them tried to make a quick sale. Mr. Stephens will not push the case. Mrs George Duggan and sister, Miss Alice Muir, of Springfield, Ill., spent a few days this week with their aunt, Mrs G. T. Schindler, of Carpenter street. They attended the state meeting of the Parent-Teacher association at the Sherman House. The young ladies who last Saturday sold home bakery products at the Nash store wish to thank the public for its liberal patronage. Net profits of the sale, amounting to $15, were donated to the fund of the Camp fire girls. Don't forget to send in you fancy work for the Firemen's bazaar. This department will be handled by the Philathea class of the Congregational church. Send the articles to Mrs. G. H. Bunge, Mrs W. E. Chesman, Mrs M. W. Mills or Mrs E. F. Lacey. George Ralston entertained several friends at his home in Prince avenue on Monday afternoon the occasion being his tenth birthday. Those present were Farrell Toombs, Elizabeth Briggs, Florence Wandler, Kenneth Sherman, Arthur Lantz and Bobby Wandler.

The Infant Welfare committee will meet at the home of Mrs Abercrombie, Highland avenue, next Thursday afternoon, May 4. New officers of this league, recently elected, are Miss Alice Gourley, President; Mrs. J. C. Branta, Secretary and Treasurer and Mrs H. S. McLaury, Work Chairman. Mr and Mrs George P. Jack, who have been making their home in Mendota, have returned to the village after several years absence and are occupying their home at 126 Linscott avenue. Mr. Jack was pensioned by the express company April 1 after a continuous service of 40 years. The last meeting of Troop 3, Boy Scouts, was well attended, thirty scouts and one candidate being present. The Crow patrol has planned a hike for Saturday afternoon, May 6. All scouts who wish to go will meet at the school house at 2 sharp, bringing with them grub enough for one meal. Mrs A. H. Barnhart, Mrs M. K. Bush, Mrs T. F. Kelly, Mrs W. J. O'Neill and Mrs H. S. Paine are delegates from the local club and from the County and District organization to the convention of Womens clubs of the 11th district at Harvard. The meetings started yesterday and will continue through today. Dr. Pierce Butler, of North Forest avenue, is to leave early in May for a tour of England, France and Germany in search of old and rare books. He goes as a representative of Newberry Library of which he has been assistant librarian for the past five years. He is well known as an authority on both new and old books. Mrs T. E. Brooks and Mrs Ballard Waples are opening the Wa-Brook Inn May 1 on the first floor of the Brooks home at 27 East Curtiss st. Regular meals, afternoon tea and coffee, ice cream confections are a few of the things which will be served. An interesting feature of the Inn will be a rest room for the benefit of the public. Mr. Chas. Peterson, south of the village, celebrated his 60th birthday last Sunday by entertaining at dinner Mr and Mrs Oscar Johnson, of Berwyn, Mr and Mrs Ernest Johnson and family, of Cicero, Mr and Mrs Alvin Peterson and Mr and Mrs Orvie Peterson, of the Grove. A very delightful time was enjoyed, Mr. Peterson receiving many congratulations. Mrs M. J. Fox and Mrs McCaul of North Main street, entertained Bluebird sewing circle at a large and enthusiastic meeting last Friday afternoon. Mrs. McCaul, who is Mr. Fox's mother, and a member of Columbian Rebecca lodge, Lincoln, Neb., gave an inspiring talk on Oddfellowship made more interesting by an exhibit of programs, ribbons, jewels, etc. presented to her as a charter member and officer of her lodge. She had received a 30 year veteran jewel that she won from her home lodge. Mrs. McCaul is also a member of the Legion of Honor. MRS. LEO ROGERS Mrs. Mary Paver Rogers, wife of Leo Rogers, formerly of Downers Grove, passed away at her home in Warrenville, Tuesday, April 18. Leo is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogers of Rogers street and was married just a year ago. The young couple had been house-keeping just two weeks, having been living with Mrs. Rogers' parents and a three months old son is left to mourn his mother's untimely taking away. Funeral services were held from the home in Warrenville Thursday, April 20 and burial was made in the Warrenville cemetery.
