Our services, for the present, are being held in the Congregational Church. Next Sunday's subject will be: "The work of the Holy Ghost." According to Christ's instruction the work of the Holy Ghost is to convince the world of sin, of the righteousness of Christ, and of the judgment of the devil. The world does not know this of its own accord. The world wishes to earn God's favor by its own righteousness, by living on the square, and by leading an outwardly decent and straight life. To convince the world that this cannot be done and to lead those who have been converted by His reproof into all the truth of the Gospel, is the work of the Holy Spirit. And to accept this reproof, to allow the Holy Spirit to work on our hearts and convince us of these facts, is the duty of every person who desires salvation.

ALICE TERRY and JACK MULHALL
It is a photodrama only for those who believe in mothers and love and laughter—and—that a man can come back.

More than half a million people saw the play in New York—it was given there 443 times. Now they—and many times their number—are flocking to see the screen version, for it is even greater on the screen than it was on the stage. They liked it—and so will you—for it is a story as human as mistakes—as human as life itself. For instance—"Go to church? Why I'd go to h--- for that old lady."

It is a picture which has been shown in almost every large prison in the United States for it clearly shows that there is in the worst of us some spark which enables us to "come back" no matter how far down we have been.

"Who can't help me when I fell,
And would some pretty story tell,
Or kiss the place to make it well?
My Mother."

Ask operator for rates and other information. "Station-to-station" calls are about twenty-five per cent less than "person-to-person" calls. On a "station-to-station" call you talk to anyone who answers the distant telephone. Of course that person can call mother to the telephone.
Evening and night rates for "station-to-station" calls are still further reduced.
