

CURTISS THEATRE
HAS TWO BIG PIC-TURES NEXT WEEK

Two of the biggest and we believe the greatest, movie productions, ever shown in Downers Grove, are coming next week to the Curtiss theatre.

These productions are the picturization of Vincente Blasco Ibanez's wonderful story, The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse and Winchell Smith's great American play, Turn to the Right.

Many and varied have been the comments of people about these two pictures. Everyone who sees them likes them, in fact, "like" is rather a trite word to be used in this connection.

Fannie Hurst, one of the most successful novelists of the day, writer of Humoresque, Back Pay, Star Dust and others, after seeing The Four Horsemen wrote:

"I came away so thrilled and moved by this picture that I had the same feeling I experienced the first and only time I saw Sarah Bernhardt. I didn't want to go home, but to walk miles and miles under the spell of what I had seen. I may seem a bit superlative in my appreciation of this film, but to me it amounts to a climax in the entire history of the screen. It might mark a birthday! The eighth muse had come of age. Mr. Ingram, Miss Mathis, Mr. Ibanez, everyone in fact connected with the masterpiece, is to be congratulated to weave that enormous story into a tapestry the size of a motion picture screen, and at the same time, to keep its integrity of form, purpose and beauty, is artistry raised to the nth power. I'm a rather querulous picture-goer, not half satisfied with conditions, but seeing The Four Horsemen has renewed my faith in the enormous potentialities of the screen."

Yale University conferred on Rex Ingram, who directed this picture, the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts, the first time such an honor was ever conferred to anyone for producing a moving picture.

Mr. Ingram also directed Turn to the Right, the other big success to be shown next week at the Curtiss.

In reviewing this film the New York World said, in part: "We all remember what a good play Turn to the Right was and how it ran on and on with always the S. R. O. sign doing yeoman service. Well, all we can say is that Turn to the Right as a film is as far ahead of Turn to the Right as a play, that there is no basis for comparison."

CHORAL SOCIETY AT KINDERGARTEN
SUNDAY, MAY 21st

Program for Concert in M. E. Church Memorial Day Evening is Being Arranged.

The West Suburban Choral society will hold a rehearsal in the Junior Elementary school, Grove street, on next week Sunday afternoon, May 12, at three o'clock. Thursday is the regular meeting night, but the postponement is effected because of the Parent-Teacher meeting next week. At the meeting last week, Mrs. McClure read a paper on Folk songs which was much appreciated. This is in keeping with the idea of disseminating information on the history and progress of music through all the centuries.

The program for the concert, to be given Memorial Day evening, in collaboration with the local Legion post, is now being arranged. It will be held in the Methodist-Episcopal church and we doubt if the capacity of even that auditorium will be large enough.
