

EXCELLENT MUSIC AND LECTURES ON CHAUTAUQUA BILL

"Friendly Enemies" is Title of Play on Fourth Evening—Dates Here July 1 to 5.

The irresistible comedy drama, "Friendly Enemies;" Solis' Marimba Band of spirited Central American musicians; lectures of timely significance, and top-notch musical companies—these are among the many varied attractions which will appear here at the big 1932 Redpath Chautauqua which opens July 1 and continues for five days.

The New England Male Quartet on the first afternoon will be heard in a grand concert. This organization features some of the best songs for male voices interspersed with capital character impersonations and monologs.

Following a prelude by the quartet in the evening, Lewis A. Convis will deliver his remarkably interesting address, "Under the Paws of the Russian Bear." Mr. Convis, who is a traveler, lecturer, and scholar, recently spent two years in Russia and Siberia.

The Alexander Trio, popular entertainment company, presenting novel and artistic instrumental numbers, character sketches, and songs, on the second day will give a grand concert in the afternoon and a prelude at night. The Trio features melody and fun in admirable proportion.

Frank Dixon, eminent publicist and lecturer, appearing on the second night, speaks on "The Indispensable Tools of Democracy." Mr. Dixon is an incisive, brilliant, humorous speaker who presents governmental and social problems constructively and illuminatingly.

The Zedeler Symphonic Quintet, appearing on the third day, is an organization of first-rank artist-musicians. They employ a cello, two violins, a piano, and a reed organ in their delightful interpretations of the music of the masters. Soprano solos supplement the instrumental selections on their exceptional programs. The Zedelers give a grand concert in the afternoon and a prelude at night.

Granville Jones, inspiring orator and thorough student of present-day social phenomena, on the third night will present one of his greatest lectures, "The Creed of America." Mr. Jones leaves a distinct impression on every community.

"Furnishing the Home Beautiful," as discussed by Edwin W. Unangst, authority on interior decoration, will be the unusually interesting program offering of the fourth afternoon, inexpensive interiors, and will conduct a question-box at the close of his lecture, discussing individual problems of house furnishing.

On the fourth night comes "Friendly Enemies," an uproarious comedy drama whose plot grows out of the conflicting convictions of two lifelong friends. Audiences in all parts of the United States have alternately laughed and wept over this well-known comedy success. It will be presented by a cast of exceptionally competent New York actors.

On the last afternoon Pattison Kline will give a constructive address, "What Do You Think When You Think?" Mr. Kline is an inspiring speaker of the highest type.

On the last night will be presented the big musical novelty feature of the Chautauqua—a grand concert by Solis' Marimba Band of Central Americans. They will feature both classical and popular music on a huge marimba—an Aztec instrument capable of an almost infinite variety of orchestral effects. The band will also give a short concert preceding Mr. Kline's lecture in the afternoon.

In accordance with the long standing policy of the Redpath Bureau, a special story hour will be conducted each morning or afternoon for the children. A thoroughly trained young woman will have charge of this work. The stories will prove an unending delight to the youngsters.

Asbestos in Great Demand.
Asbestos is employed in the manufacture of woven fabrics, such as fireproof theater curtains, cloth for theater wall linings and scenery; firemen's clothing and fireproof rope; roof shingles or asbestos slate, stucco, plaster, lumber, mill board, asbestos paper and insulating; covering for pipes, furnaces and locomotives to prevent radiation of heat; as filler for high-grade paints; for heat-resisting table mats and for tempering the heat of gas stoves in cooking.

A Grain of Wisdom.
Every man takes care that his neighbor does not cheat him. But a day comes when he begins to care that he does not cheat his neighbor. Then he has changed his market cart into a chariot of the sun.—R. W. Johnson.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL WINS IN COUNTY SHORTHAND TEST

Robert Wolf and Margaret Lemke Win Honors at Wheaton—Average 98 and 97.1.

We have great reason to be proud of the fact that our young people won first place in the County Shorthand contest held at Wheaton on May 19, and brought back with them the silver cup. Mr. Robert M. Wolf and Miss Margaret Lempe carried off the honors and it was not a mean first place that they won, as West Chicago, the next highest was 5 points below.

The dictation was at the rate of seventy-five words a minute and 453 words were dictated. Following is the report of the contest with the places of the individuals and of the schools represented.

Great credit is due our capable commercial teacher, Miss Ruby Radcliffe, who under adverse conditions, not having much of the equipment the other high school commercial departments have, has brought these young people to such a high point of efficiency. We are justly proud of all of them and that they have again put Downers Grove on the map in this very important and practical line of high school work.

Nut Got Name From 'Town.
A certain kind of nut grew in profusion in the town of Kastana, in Pontus, Asia Minor. It derived its name from that of the town, and was known in English as chestnut, in Russian kashtan, in Bulgarian kesten, in Italian castagna, in French chataigne. All it will be noticed, variations of the name of the town.

Translations of Poe.
It appears from the bibliography appended to the definitive edition of Poe that between 1880 and 1885 there were made at least ten translations of his works in various foreign languages. What could have brought about such a remarkable result? In a word, it must be Poe's unique genius—his intense originality, which has hardly been paralleled in literary history, and his indefinable, inimitable charm of manner, which appeals not simply to men of one particular clime or country, but to all men everywhere.—Edwin W. Bowen.

When Five Cents Locked Large.
Among the day's pathetic figures is the local storekeeper who, locked in a telephone booth by a holdup man, didn't have a nickel to phone for the police.—Buffalo Express.

Must Be Done by an Expert.
Jud Furbins says the public likes to be humbugged by a man as clever as P. T. Barnum was, but it's a nuisance to have the trick tried by bungling amateurs.

SAFE MILK

The only milk which can really be called "safe" is milk which has been pasteurized. We have a complete pasteurization plant in full operation and all milk delivered from our wagons has been put thru this modern process.
