A table is set for you laden with forgiveness of sins, favor with God, peace of conscience, and eternal life and you are urged to be seated at this table. Many have rejected this kind invitation, and rejecting it, were rejected by God. Are you guilty of this sin? Have you turned down the blessed invitation? Then, for the sake of your immortal soul attend the service at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon and hear the sermon on "The Great Supper." Don't be a fool and live on in unbelief and some day find the door to the heavenly banquet hall shut against you. Now is the accepted time. Come, hear, and accept the gracious invitation. "Fois Gras."
Fois gras is the French term for goose liver. One of the most famous industries of Toulouse, France, is the scientific fattening of geese for the enlargement of their livers. The birds are kept in special coops which prevent their taking exercise and are fed to the limit of their capacities. Fois gras is imported in jars or tins in four forms: foie gras au naturel, pate de foie gras, purée de foie gras and sauce au foie gras.
