Personnel of the Convention

Dr. John E. Stout, Evanston, Ill.—Dr. Stout is one of the outstanding leaders in the field of religious education today.

For many years he was prominently engaged in educational work in the public schools of Iowa. He was called to Cornell College as professor of education, later he was transferred to Northwestern University to the department of Religious Education.

He has brought the same thoroughly scholarly habits to bear on the field of general education. He is at present head of the department in the Northwestern University, which is perhaps the largest department of religious education west of the Allegheny mountains.

Dr. Stout has made a specialty of organization and administration. He is a keen thinker and a forceful speaker and will address the convention on the subject of organization.

Rev. D. H. Wing—Chicago, State Secretary of the Young Peoples' and Adult Divisions. Some twenty years ago when the organized Sunday School movement was gaining headway, Rev. D. H. Wing was one of the enthusiastic promoters of better things in the Sunday School work in the Province of Ontario.

service. Later he was transferred to Ontario as secretary of the rural work. After several years of service in this capacity he accepted his present position. The fine experience Mr. Wing has had, together with his rousing enthusiasm coupled with a splendid vision of the larger work of religious education, combines to make Mr. Wing an exceptionally effective convention speaker.

Mrs. A. A. Lamereaux, Chicago.—The committee is happy in being able to present to the convention so able and conspicuous a worker in the field as Mrs. Lamereaux. Many who have heard her on the platform consider her as a speaker of unusual power. She is the author of a number of books on various subjects of religious education. The subject assigned her is one with which she is unusually successful. Being a homemaker herself of fine christian culture and having given the subject much careful thought and study, she is eminently fitted to give the convention a message that shall truly inspire for the upbuilding of the Christian home.

Rev. R. W. Schlorb, Naperville.—Mr. Schlorb is a fine example of the type of training that a modern congregation expects of its leader. After graduation from college and seminary he spent several years as Chaplain in the U. S. army.

After he continued his studies at the Union Theological Seminary, N. Y. He was then transferred to Northwestern University, where he received the M. A. degree in religious education. This superior course of academic training has tended to develop a gifted young man into a preacher of unusual promise.

As pastor of the College Church, Naperville, he has shown unique ability and success in the task before him. Mr. Schlorb discusses the topic—"The Necessity of a Religious Consecration," for which he is superbly prepared, and being a speaker of great simplicity and of persuasive power, the convention is assured of a strong discourse.

The program committee has made provision for about six simultaneous conferences. These conferences will be led by people who have had wide experience and practical training. Hence, the committee is confident all these conferences will prove to be most beneficial.

GOODWIN CLARK SETS NEW RECORD FOR GOLF COURSE

Goodwin Clark, who has been playing the best game of his career this season, Monday broke the record for the Hinsdale course with a card of 67, 6 strokes under par. He was playing against G. Whiteside in the morning round of the Labor Day tournament, and all putts were held. The previous mark was 70, held by young Herbert Skinner.—Hinsdale Daily.

GOOD SUGGESTION FOR Y M C A WORK IN DuPAGE COUNTY

A Camp Site is Really Needed for This District Says "One Who is Vitrally Interested"

DuPage County really needs a camp site for her boys who are so interested in this work and they really enjoy it so much.

A man in the west part of the state had a son who was a senior in high school. Last May, while playing baseball, one of his favorite sports, he was hit and seriously hurt and never recovered. At first his mother and father were very bitter in regard to sports of any kind, but later they knew they could not go on living like that so they wrote the state committee of the Y. M. C. A. in regard to a camp of Christian character for boys. They said they would willingly give up to $20,000 for this purpose.

The committee found an ideal place near Decatur. This camp will always be known as Camp Charles Slocum, as a memorial to their son.

This year our DuPage county boys camped at Camp Duncan. This camp was also given by a Christian man who wished to promote Y. M. C. A. work. Next year it is expected four or five hundred boys will be in this camp.

COME ON DuPAGE COUNTY LET US DO SOMETHING! "One Interested."

Buddhist Ideas of Marriage.

According to the Buddhist faith, the marriage tie contracted in this world will carry over to the next. When circumstances prevent a marriage in this world, many Japanese men and women commit suicide in the hope of a happy married life in the world to come.
