When they arrived in Hinsdale they had refreshments, then journeyed home on the train. All report having enjoyed the hike. How about the two?

Is This Encouraging Idolatry?
Speaking of exports to the East, there is a certain English firm which, in the course of its ordinary business, produces large quantities of waste paper and lead. This material is melted up, run into molds and exported in the form of images of various eastern gods.

ELECT S. ANDREWS Y. P. C. OFFICERS AT ANNUAL MEETING

Successful Year Closed—Plans Call for Greater Activities During the Coming One

A successful year was closed last Sunday evening when the Young Peoples' club of Saint Andrews Episcopal church elected their officers for the new term. The club has been functioning excellently and has accomplished great things during the past twelve months.

That they are planning for still greater accomplishments can be seen from the fact that the electing of an assistant secretary and a second vice president will be brought before the club at their next regular meeting.

Two additional committees, dramatic and athletic, under the direction of Miss Lorraine Tope and Errol Sanders have been appointed.

Officers elected are as follows: Harry Case, President; Bessie Pape, Vice President; Cora Miley, Secretary; Edith Snyder, Treasurer. These are the same officers as last year and were re-elected because of the efficient way in which they handled the business of the club.

NOTES OF VESTA CHAPTER, O. E. S.

The regular meeting of Vesta Chapter, No. 242, Order of the Eastern Star on Tuesday night brought forth a good turn out of members and friends. There was initiation and refreshments, served in the dining room ended the evening.

During the initiation ceremonies Mrs. Earl Whidden favored with a vocal selection and later entertained with several songs. At the next meeting to be held Tuesday evening, September 26, there will also be initiation and refreshments.

Mrs. A. R. Cramer was Esther and Mr. Geo. E. Bell, Worthy Patron at Bethel Chapter, Elgin, last Friday night. Quite a number of local members attended and report a fine evening.

Miss Margaret Wolf filled the station of Ada at Elmhurst Chapter last Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. R. Cramer will take the Treasurer's station at Cicero next Monday evening.

Mrs. Jennie Kuegemaan will be Associate Conductress at Wheaton next Thursday night.
