

NEWSY NOTES FROM LISLE AND BELMONT

LISLE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NOTES

Services for Sunday, October 1st. This will be a "Fiftieth Anniversary" Bible translation Sunday and our morning sermon theme will be "The Bible." The evening service theme will be "The Acts—a Bible Study Message."

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.
Morning services 10.30 a. m.
Evening service 7:30 p. m.
Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., Prayer Meeting Theme, "Forging Ahead."
A. L. Allison, Pastor.

A telegram which came from Mr. Charles Leppa, of Malta, Ill., to the Haumesser family Saturday, told of the critical illness of Mrs. Leppa, who before her marriage was Ann Haumesser. Her many friends hope that her sickness may prove not to be as serious as is now thought and that recovery will soon come.

Mrs Walter Plumb was the guest of her sister, Mrs Jessie Richter, at Downers Grove, Thursday.

The local church Advance Bible class will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs Harry Barnacle Friday evening.

Mrs E. Yagel delightfully entertained the Ladies Aid Society at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mr and Mrs James Barnacle represented the Lisle Sunday School as delegates to the County Sunday School convention at Lombard Sunday. Rosella Porter also attended the convention both Saturday and Sunday representing the Grace church school of Naperville. All sessions were much enjoyed.

Mrs Arthur Porter and Rosella spent a pleasant evening Friday at the home of Mr and Mrs W. Briggs and Mr and Mrs Thos. Sheldon and family, of Hinsdale. They enjoyed a good water melon feed.

Bird Builds Fancy Bungalow.
The bower bird of Australia builds a very elaborate nest which resembles a bungalow. When this is finished the bird proceeds to decorate it with flowers and other objects of bright colors. Any other bird which undertakes to interfere with the decorations is in for a good thrashing, for the bower bird objects to any criticism of its work.

WINNEBAGO GIRLS

ENJOY CAMP FIRE "WEINIE" ROAST

Last Thursday the Winnebago Club held a wiener roast at the home of one of its clubmembers in North Highland avenue. The menu consisted of potato salad, buns and wieners, cocoa, cake, and last of all marshmallows.

After the dinner had been eaten the girls had setting up exercises, Indian dances, and other sports that were especially suitable for the evening.

The business session was held around the fire. Wanda, the leader, offered a prize for the best cheer not to be handed in later than next week. The treasurer's report was given and the girls were very delighted when they found out that they had nearly forty dollars in the treasury. Plans were discussed for a Thanksgiving for the poor. When it grew dark the girls left for home after having had a very enjoyable evening. The officers of the club are as follows:
Leader—Blanche Peifer.
Secretary—Maude Haller.
Treasurer—Geraldine Wolf.
Gymnastics—Marguerite Peifer.
