

PERSONALS

Every art is an art of expression. Lelia Teloir Hendren. Advertisement.

Don't forget DuPage county's own tag day tomorrow. Have a heart and a little spare change.

James Burns, of Chicago, spent Sunday here at the home of his son, Stewart, of Prince avenue.

Mr and Mrs Theron Potter and son, of Batavia were Sunday visitors in town.

Expression is the foundation of all art. Lelia Teloir Hendren. Advertisement.

Mr and Mrs F F Chessman are now settled in their beautiful new home in West Curtiss street.

Mr and Mrs Oscar Potter and Margery motored with Clifford to Batavia Saturday afternoon.

Mr and Mrs Newbeck, of Irving Park, took dinner with Mr and Mrs A G Sweet of North Main street last Sunday and spent the day with them.

Dramatic coach and stage make-up. Lelia Teloir Hendren. Advertisement.

Mrs O A Schlauder entertained the Oakwood Thimble club at a very delightful luncheon Tuesday at her home in Middaugh avenue.

The local camp of the Royal Neighbors will hold a fancy work and bakery sale at Uhlhorn's Dairy on Saturday afternoon, October 14.

Hemstitching, Pleating of all kinds, buttons covered, prompt service. Mrs. Abercrombie, 17 Highland ave., phone 387-R. 10-6-4

Reader and teacher of expression. Lelia Teloir Hendren. Advertisement.

Mrs Maud R Allen, of DesPlaines, spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Emrich, in North Forest avenue.

The Evangelical Ladies Aid will hold a bakery and apron sale, Thursday afternoon, October 19 at Uhlhorn's dairy.

Chas. Replinger has returned to the Naval school at Annapolis, Md., after spending his furlough with his parents here.

Mr and Mrs Luedke and children, of Riverside are boarding here until their new home in Clarendon Hills is ready for them.

Curtis Bridgeman, of Oakwood avenue, has gone to Everett, Wash., where he will make an extended visit with relatives.

Mrs. K. M. Snapp is in the village superintending the removal of their furniture to the Snapp home in Walworth, Wis.

Notices have been mailed that a regular meeting of the local legion post will be held next Monday evening, October 9, in the G. A. R. hall, Main and Curtiss streets.

Mrs. Reed of Omaha, Neb., spent the week end with the O. J. Snyder family in Oakwood avenue.

Is spending a few weeks with her sisters in Michigan.

Dr and Mrs Herman Wenger, Mrs and Mr Sigfrid Hjerstedt, and Mr and Mrs Louis Fuhrmann, all of Chicago, visited Sunday with Mrs and the Rev. Wm. Grotefeld in Grove St.

Mr and Mrs G M Barry, having sold their home in Gilbert avenue, are now living temporarily with Mrs. Barry's parents, the R. C. Briggs family, in North Prince avenue.

A foot specialist from Chicago, will be in our store on Monday, October 9. His services are free. E. Karlson, Hinsdale, Illinois. Advertisement.

The Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Stressman drove from their home in Ionia, Michigan, and arrived here Wednesday afternoon for a visit with Mrs. Stressman's sisters, Mrs W J Staats and Miss Elsie Pischel.

Mr and Mrs A Martins are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, Edward Theodore, at their home in Webster street, Tuesday, September 19.

Clark Kessler, for many months pianist at local theatres, is now playing on the Keith-Orpheum vaudeville circuit. He is making the music for a dancing act which is going big on the Keith time.

The Star Concertina club will give a Masquerade Ball on Saturday, October 21, in Lacey Hall. There will be prizes for the best dressed, comic, and etc. Admission is $1.00 per couple. Advertisement.

Mr and Mrs Ross, of Monmouth, are now located in the former home of the G M Barry's in Gilbert avenue. Mr. and Mrs. I. Harris, of Riverside are occupying the west half of the house.

The Nature Study class will meet with Mrs Philip Weinheimer at her home in Elm street, next Friday, October 13. The usual luncheon will be served and a good program has been arranged.

Dan Diener, commander of the local American Legion post, will go to New Orleans this month as the alternate delegate from this district to the National convention of this organization of ex-service men.

Miss I R Prell had as her guests at her home in Elm street last Sunday, Mr and Mrs W Matchett, of Chicago; Mr and Mrs L Prell, of Hollywood and Miss H Anderson, of San Diego, California.

Mr and Mrs Andrew Miskelly and family, of Chicago, are moving Saturday into the Mrs. Sillik house in Prince avenue. Mr. Miskelly is a brother of A. C. Miskelly, of Prince avenue and of Samuel Miskelly of Highland avenue.

Mrs. Smith, mother of Mrs. Edward Emrich, of North Forest ave., had the misfortune to fall from the back steps Tuesday and was severely shaken up. Fortunately there were no bones broken and no serious results are looked for.

Mr and Mrs Chas. Payne, of Los Angeles, California, who have been visiting here, returned Monday to their home. They were accompanied by their sister, Mrs. Mae LaCharty, who will make them an extended visit.

Mr and Mrs George C Butler of Palatine, were week end guests at the Chas. Mochel home in West Maple avenue. Mr. Butler was formerly superintendent of the local schools and their many friends here were glad to see them.

Margaret Wolf, of Prairie avenue, who was hit by the Emil Matson car at Forest and Gilbert Monday noon, was just slightly bruised and is able to be around. Her parents and herself desire to thank their many neighbors and friends for their kindness.

Mrs. Russell, of Cambridge, Ill., a former resident of the village has been the guest of Mrs A E Olson of Oakwood avenue, the past week. They have been attending the sessions of the Grand Chapter of the Illinois Eastern Star at the Medinah Temple in Chicago.

Most of the officers and several of the members of Vesta Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star have been in attendance at the session of the Grand Chapter of the state at the Medinah Temple, Chicago, this week. The chapter will meet in Springfield next year at the forty-ninth session of the order in the state and the fiftieth meeting will be held in Chicago.

Mrs. Gertrude Darnley has opened the coziest kind of a Beauty Parlor in her home at 53 Highland Ave., and is ready to give the famous Antiseptic shampoos, where the hair is dried by artificial sunlight produced by the Deep Therapy Lamp. Also the celebrated Indu Antiseptic Hot Oil treatments and scalp treatments. Mrs. Darnley also carries a full line of the Indu cosmetics and uses them exclusively in her work. Phone 323-W for appointment. Advertisement.

H O Woodward, the local representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, had the pleasure of attending a dinner at the Congress hotel Thursday evening in honor of Haley Fiske, president of the company. The three leaders in each district in the city were selected as the result of the past several weeks' work, and Mr. Woodward qualified in Garfield district, ranking the highest of the three. The "President's Dinner" is held to be quite an event and there is generally a spirited effort made for the honor of attending.

Sunday, October 1, the tenth annual Sunday School convention of the southwest district of Evangelical Sunday Schools of Chicago and vicinity was held at St. Michael's Evangelical church, West Chicago, Ill. The convention was well attended. The principal speaker for the occasion was Prof. Theophil Mueller, of Elmhurst College who spoke on "Religious Education of the Child." Members of St. Paul's Evangelical Sunday School who attended the convention were Mrs. Augusta Selig, Misses Clara and Laura Selig, Mrs. Caroline Weatherbee and the Rev. W. Grotefeld.

The ladies of Downers Grove will be delighted to know that for some time past Mrs. Gertrude Darnley has been taking intensive training in the American School of Ethical Beauty Culture, conducted by Mrs. L. Smith, formerly Miss McGrath, of the Indu Kosmetic shop at Main and Warren. The school is located in the State-Lake building in Chicago and Mrs. Darnley is bringing to her home town the very best service that can be rendered in an ethically conducted up-to-date Beauty shop.

ORGANIZE STAFF FOR "CAULDRON" SCHOOL ANNUAL

The staff of "The Cauldron," the annual of Downers Grove High School, has been elected and is now working in an effort to put out a year book this year, as has been done for the past three years. The problem probably is more difficult this year than before, but the Seniors are working determinedly. No contracts, however, will be made until the money is at hand. Everyone in the town who is interested in the high school is urged to subscribe and help the financing in any possible way.

The following are members of the staff:

James Mitchell—Editor-in-Chief
Lyman Dum—Business Manager
Richard Rumbaugh, Asst. Man.
Wilfred Pape—Subscription Man.
Eugene Foster—Advertising Man.
William Boon—Athletic Editor
Jack Fisher—Joke Editor
Lillian Wilhelm—Literary Editor
Margaret Smith—Art Editor
Neleeta Miskelly—Dramatic Editor
Hazel Bensley—Social Editor
Arthur Phelps—Junior Editor
Douglasa Huntington—Sophomore Editor

The Local Telephone Directory Goes to Press Soon

In the interest of good service subscribers are requested to call

The Telephone Company and give notice of any changes or corrections that should be made in their listings

ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Special for Saturday!

72 x 90 Cotton Stitched three pound batt, comfort size, of good quality. Regular $1.00 value. For Saturday only, each

88c

H. E. McALLISTER & CO.

Admission—Evenings
Adults, 25c; Children 15c
Saturday Matinees
Adults 20c; Children 10c

The DICKE THEATRE

Two Shows Each Evening
at 7:30 and 9:15
Matinee
Saturday at 3:15

ANNOUNCES ANOTHER BIG WEEK OF SPLENDID PRODUCTIONS

Pick Out the Ones That Are Usually Good and See Them---You Will See Five!

-TONIGHT-
FRIDAY, OCT. 6

↓

Mary Miles Minter
in
"The Heart Specialist"

↑

The winsome little star never was more appealing than in this story in which she gives advice to the lovelorn through the columns of a big metropolitan paper, until she needs advice herself.

A Universal Comedy and International News

Saturday, Oct. 7
Elaine Hammerstein
in
"Under Oath"

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN
The Star Without a Failure, in

With Niles Welch, Mahlon Hamilton and Wallace McDonald in a tale of tangled intrigues for the love of a worthwhile woman.

"BATTLING TORCHY"
A Two Reel Comedy with
JOHNNY HINES

"The Fox"
Another of the thrilling adventures of Bill and Bob

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Monday and Tuesday
Oct. 9 and 10

JACK HOLT
and
BEBB DANIELS
North of the Rio Grande
A Dramatic Picture

A Two Star Bulls Eye

Thundering hoofs and alkali, a beautiful girl and a fighting man—a sweeping drama of the Great Southwest—also

A HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY
and PATHE REVIEW

Wednesday, Oct. 11
Anita Stewart in
"Rose of the Sea"

Anita Stewart

The romance of a girl—waif of the sea—thrown into the perils of the stranger sea of society. She squandered her love on a reckless youth and was paid in full by his father.

RAMBLING ROMEO—A 2 Reel

Educational Comedy

A DAY IN THE WILDS—with Bill and Bob

Thursday, Oct. 12

"THE LOVES OF PHARAOH"
with EMIL JANNINGS, DAGNY SERREVS and HARRY LIEBKE
—ERNEST LUBTISCH—

The World's Greatest Love Drama
The screen masterpiece the whole world is anxious to see. The most gorgeous setting ever seen, the most spectacular thrills and thru all the magnificence a flaming, appealing love story, with a sensational new beauty as the heroine.

UNIVERSAL COMEDY and INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Friday, Oct. 13
Agnes Ayres
in
"Borderland"

Agnes Ayres was never so alluring as in this appealing drama of impetuous young love. Lavishly produced. Milton Sills and Casson Ferguson in the cast.

HARD KNOCKS and LOVE TAPS
Mack Sennett's latest two reel comedy sensation.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS