Common and Preferred Stock.
Preferred stock in a corporation is a share which is entitled to a dividend before any other dividend is payable. The amount of the dividend is limited, however. Common stock receives its dividend after the preferred stock, but the dividend is not limited. Holders of preferred and common stock in a company are contributors to its capital and are members of the corporation.

"Hello, Dick; This Is Mother!"
Dick is in college, far away from home and parents, and perhaps a little homesick. The cheery voice of mother, father, sister or—perhaps sweetheart—over the long distance telephone will cheer him wonderfully.
Keep in touch by telephone with the boys and girls away at school. The cost of the service is a trifle compared with the comfort and joy of hearing the children's voices and knowing they are well and in good spirits.

Oh Boy! Here's a Battery that Fits the Pocketbook
We used to know a chap who wore two-dollar shoes, fifteen-dollar suits, a dollar watch and threw his socks away instead of sending them to the mending basket. Said he'd a heap rather pay less and buy oftener.
If he was around here now he'd grab a CW Battery (Wood Separator) and have it on his car quicker 'n scat! We've seen lots of batteries—but never one within gunshot of the CW Battery (Wood Separator), for quality at anything like the price!
