NEW LIVE STOCK REPORT SERVICE

Plans Being Made to Give Monthly Changes in Situation on Farms of Country.

ALL DETAILS WILL BE GIVEN

Careful Study Being Made of Possible Methods for Gathering and Distributing Information to Those Interested.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Plans for a nation-wide live stock reporting service showing the monthly changes in the live stock situation on farms are now being made by the United States Department of Agriculture, under the $70,000 congressional appropriation recently made for this work. The service will also include the forecasting and reporting of the important live stock movements.

Make-Up of Reports.
At recent conferences of statisticians and crop and live stock estimating exerts it was felt that the monthly reports of changes on the farm should include reports of births, deaths, losses, marketings, purchases, and animals bred, with periodical classifications of the numbers of animals on farms. This service will be an expansion of experimental work carried on by the division of crop and live stock estimates during the last three or four years. Monthly reports will be obtained from 70,000 to 100,000 farms, and state indexes of changes at least for the corn belt, and eastern and southern states will be developed. The range states on cattle and sheep will be covered by a series of semi-annual reports because of the difficulty of getting monthly reports from those states.

Information to Be Given.
The forecasting and reporting of the important live stock movements will be based upon the movement of feeder cattle and lambs from the range states to the corn belt feed lots, the movement from the feed lots to market, the movement into the eastern feed lots such as Lancaster, Pa., and the movement out, the forecasting and estimating of the yearly lamb and calf crop of the range states, and estimates of the feeder hog movement in the Middle West. A careful study is now being made of possible methods for gathering and reporting this information.

At conferences held to develop a live stock reporting program, representatives of farmers' organizations, co-operative live stock shipping associations, the packing establishments, and other live stock interests were present. Many large live stock producers' associations in the West have also indicated a desire to cooperate.

Moon Absolutely Without Water.
There is no water on the moon. The mountains there are as dry as powder. They are desiccated far beyond the extremes of the most parched of earthly deserts. On this globe there is always a little water to be found, even in the most baked and unpromising spots. Only a few drops, perhaps, but water. On the moon there is not even one drop.—S. F. Maxwell, in the Chicago Tribune.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Charles Leppla, of Malta, Ill., reached here late Monday night. Mrs.

Leppla, known here by old school mates and other friends as Ann Haumesser, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haumesser. She leaves to mourn her early departure her parents, her husband and son, Paul, six sisters, Mrs. Ella MacMillan, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Lena Cline, of Western Springs; Mrs. Rose DeRosa, of Hinsdale; Mrs. Minnie Dobbs and Mrs. Bertha Briggs, of Lisle; Mrs. Margaret True, of LaGrange, and four brothers, Emil, of Downers Grove; George of DeKalb; Frank, of Lisle and Elmer, of Joliet.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed but interment is to be at Frankfurt, Illinois. Friends of the bereaved family wish to express their sincere sympathy.

Mrs. Ben Leasley, of Naperville and a few lady friends set out Monday to take a ride along Ogden avenue to Lisle. While attempting to cross the temporary bridge just west of Lisle the motor, died and the car backed quickly and would have upset the party in the river had it not been for the quick action on the part of the bridge man.

Mr and Mrs Harry Dobbs spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs Thos. Dobbs.

Mr and Mrs Rudolph Eichhorst's home was the scene of a merry birthday surprise party on Mr Eichhorst Saturday evening.

Mr and Mrs Thos Dobbs left here Sunday night to spend a few weeks in Chicago with relatives.

Mr and Mrs Wm Boscamp and son Billie of Chicago and Mr and Mrs John Campbell and son, Clifford, of the Grove, were the guests of Mr and Mrs A Porter Sunday.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Miss Julia Twohey and Mr Alphonse Engelschall to be held November 23d. Rosella Porter spent the week end in Waukegan with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Willard Knack.
