MG2 C6 - The Rural Living Task Group

1 Newspaper - Ruralities

1.01 Volume 1, Issue 1, circa 1979. "Ruralities was published in accord with the principles and beliefs of the Halton Community Pulse Group in conjunction with the Rural Development Outreach Project, University of Guelph. These principles and beliefs, as identified by the Halton Community Pulse Group, are to "build on the positive aspects of life in Halton" by exploring means to contribute to the maintenance and betterment of rural life.

The need to develop an understanding and an appreciation of the nature of Halton's rural-urban mix, and reducing the negative impact of chance, was viewed as a positive goal; hence, the formation of The Rural Living Task Group whose purpose was to identify, research, write and compile RURALITIES.

The Rural Living Task Group: Chairman & Editor - Pamela Sheldon. Editorial Assistance - Kay Dills. Research-Services - Mary-Lou Olah. Research-Farm - Jean Everett. Research-Property - Les Bunker. Photograph & RDOP Liaison - Val Walters. Cartoonist-Illustrator - Kevin Wallace. "
