

MG3 A80 - Halton Hills Hydro

1 History

- 1.01 Programme. Official Opening, Halton Hills Hydro-Electric Commission Administration and Operations Centre, 43 Alice Street, Acton. December 02, 1989.
- 1.02 Newspaper clipping. Toronto Star, Business Section, Page D1 and D10. Acton utility flicks switch to launch 'load shifting' test. Aim is to bank power in batteries. Pilot could spark investor interest. By Tyler Hamilton.

MG3 A81 - J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home

1 History

- 1.01 Newspaper article. Toronto Star, November 30, 1989, Page 16. By Kellie Hudson.

MG3 A82 - Beaumont Knitting Mill

1 History (Acc. #94.36)

- 1.01 Newspaper article. Another chapter closed. "The imminent closing of Beaumont Knitting Co. Ltd. In Glen Williams this month after 104 years of operation in the same location shows just how difficult it is for long established industries to compete" Georgetown Independent, September 8, 1982.

1.02 Designation Report. Halton Hills L.A.C.A.C. October, 1989.
Photocopy.

2 Employee Records

2.01 National Selective Service, Notice of Separation from Employment. Mrs. Annie Timleck, Glen Williams. Occupation - Winder. Rate of Pay - 30 cents per hour. Last Day to be Worked - June 9, 1945.

3 Miscellaneous

3.01 Newspaper clipping. Photos. 100th anniversary celebrations. Georgetown Independent, July 19, 1978, Page 11.

3.02 Newspaper clipping. Beaumont Mills may warrant LACAC designation. By Richard E. Ruggle. Georgetown Independent, November 29, 1989, Page A7.

3.03 Newspaper clipping. No fly-by-night, 100th birthday for Glen Mill. Georgetown Independent, March 08, 1978

3.04 Newspaper clipping. Sam Beaumont came from Yorkshire to buy woollen mills in Glen. Georgetown Independent, September 29, 1976. Page 14 and 15