 January 06, 1890.

"sir your letter of the 31st reached me in due time and in answer must say I am unable to pay Doctor Todds and Weelers notes just now But if my crops turns out well this comming season i will try and pay them next fall I onely had a small crop last summer and could do nothing for any person and very little for myself it is not becuse i do not want to pay my debts but becuse i am not able to pay and as for sueing there is no use in you doing any such thing for I have nothing the law can take as for my neighbours knowing what I owe it will not cost them the second thought for like myself they have all they can do to look after their own affirs. Ps Doctor Todd never would hurry me for he knows i would pay as soon as i could."
