First prize rug in the Provincial Rug Competition, in an original design of trilliums and maple leaves, was made by Atikokan Institute. In the background is Colpoy's Bay Institute's rug featuring their "W.I. Hall." The rugs piled at the right are winners from other convention areas. Miss Anna P. Lewis, centre, convened the Rug Competition. Right, Miss Audrey Spencer, Supervisor Home Crafts, W.I. Branch. Left, Miss Irene McBride, Psychologist, W.I. Branch, who had just returned from study in Europe at the time of the exhibition.
