

for the children and got them interested in making posters for the Institute's apron sale.

Rosspart painted and repaired the hall and installed an oil furnace. They give the use of the hall, rent free, for church organizations and the school Christmas concert.

Stanley arranges transportation to take children to the Health Unit clinics. Roslyn provided transportation for children to the polio inoculation clinic and assisted at the clinic; bought books for the school library; had picnic tables made for playgrounds.

McGregor was instrumental in getting daily mail delivery for the community.

Upsala has over $100 set aside to equip a kitchen in the community hall; paid for one-half unit of books from the co-operative library; repaired the archway at the entrance to the cemetery; gave $25 to an eighth grade pupil going on to high school.

Carolyn Oke of Huron county who was awarded the trip to the International 4-H Club Congress at Chicago as provincial representative of 4-H Homemaking Clubs of Ontario. The award was made for satisfactory achievement and personal development through club work.

East Fort William donated $25 worth of books to the public library in memory of Mrs. Jessie Cooper.

Earlton reports: "All the pre-school children in Armstrong Township received polio vaccine as a result of a letter to the M.O.H. and Council, signed by the Institute president and secretary and health convener."

Savard, among many charities gave view master reels to a shut-in boy.

Cane served a hot dinner to men holding a bee to improve the school grounds. Cane and Elk Lake provided cod liver oil capsules for the school children. Bury's Green provided capsules for three schools.

Dymond members attended open house on Friday afternoon at the school during education week. Temagami started a library with donated books, collected used clothing and distributed it to people in need. Cameron raised $300 for the local hospital fund.

Minden gave donations to the hospital and the public library and provided baseball equipment for the young people. Cambray gave donations to the library. Took charge of a refreshment booth at the arena and gave half the proceeds to the Arena Board.

Glen, in addition to many donations to charities away from home sent quilt patches, yarn and money to the Home for the Aged.

Reaboro put on an Irish Variety Concert for two nights and bought playground equipment for the school. South Ops provided six one-dollar prizes to the school children showing the greatest effort in their work. South Verulam gave a donation to the minor hockey league. Woolwich Ever Faithful conducted a public speaking event for candidates from all the schools of the township. Bridgeport sponsors 4-H Clubs especially homemaking clubs, girl guides, scouts and cubs.

Mrs. D. H. Hart, right, presents Miss Marie Fleming with the first award of the London Area Women's Institute bursary to assist students at Macdonald Institute. — OAC photo.

Wellesley gave donations to the local library, the Santa Claus fund, $200 to the community hall and an electric stove for the hall kitchen. Galt helped the Family Service Bureau with Christmas baskets and money for a girl's dentures. Maple Grove paid the fuel bill for a poor family for the winter.

Bowen Road says: "As we are a small group, we find it is better to give our time and money to one special project than to hand out a little to many projects. This year we have given our time and efforts to the School for Retarded Children in Fort Erie."

Crystal Beach enlarged the public library and encouraged supervised teen-age activities.

Stamford Evening Group presented their prize-winning play at the Golden Hour Club (senior citizens) and the "Mary Martha Society."

Carry-On sends a letter and $5 every month to a patient in Sunnybrook Hospital.

Wentworth Institute districts take turns giving a luncheon for the foster mothers of children from the Children's Aid.

Aldershot sent a "shower" of gifts to the Cancer Centre, Christmas gifts to Wentworth Lodge or Home for the Aged, layettes to the Children's Aid, Christmas baskets to a needy family and articles for patients in the San.

Rockton reports that as the result of an Institute discussion, Rockton school now has fire insurance. West Flamboro "wrote to the Department of Highways regarding signs and speed limit zones and this was attended to promptly."

Strabene gave a banquet to the senior and midget baseball teams—"very much appreciated by the boys' parents."