

male West Indian students attend O.A.C. and on this evening she watched a group of white male students on the campus being instructed by some of the West Indian students in the art of Yoga. They were having a wonderful time, all laughing together at the antics of the white students trying to carry out the exercises of their West Indian friends.

Mrs. Haggerty also spoke on the A.C.W.W. project, "Pennies for Friendship." The fee from branches all over the world to A.C.W.W. is only two cents per member and this does not by any means pay the expenses. It is set at this low figure so that no matter how wealthy or how poor an associated organization is, all can pay the fee. "Pennies for Friendship" is a project whereby branches from time to time collect pennies and send the amount to F.W.I.O. office for A.C.W.W. Some districts have a regular ceremony at their annual meeting and present their "penny banks" to the secretary-treasurer.

The F.W.I.C. Foundation Fund also is in need of bolstering, Mrs. Haggerty said. Donations to date amount to only $42.76.

Miss McKercher said in connection with the "Eat to Live" project, the Home Economics Service Extension Branch has a Workshop in mind at District level for Home Economic and Health conveners from branches and anyone else interested to attend. The leader would be a senior member of the Extension Branch, Food and Nutrition staff, who would make suggestions on how to carry out this program to make it interesting and educational at branch level. It would be a one-day project. Members of the Board agreed this would receive support and voted that such a Workshop be set up.

Trading Stamps and Other Matters

By invitation of the Canadian Association of Consumers, Mrs. Lymburner had been asked to represent the Women's Institute on a delegation to Premier Frost and the Attorney General to present a brief against trading stamps. Mrs. Lymburner reported the delegation received courteous consideration and were told the Government would gather the necessary evidence and present a trial case. No further word has been received regarding this.

In taking up the correspondence which had been received by the president, Mrs. Lymburner said she was constantly receiving letters for donations and appeals. One letter was received from a lawyer in Hungary, addressed to the President of the Women's Institutes of Ontario.

FRIENDSHIP

By Dinah Maria Mulock Craik

Oh, the comfort—the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person,
Having neither to weigh thoughts,
Nor measure words — but pouring them
All right out — just as they are —
Chaff and grain together —
Certain that a faithful hand will Take and sift them —
Keep what is worth keeping —
And with the breath of kindness
Blow the rest away.

THE GREATER LOVE
Scott Horton

He puts his slippers on and lights his pipe
And hides his face behind the evening news.
She takes her mending basket near the light
And sews a button on the baby's shoes.
He slumps down in his easy chair and soon
His gentle breathing rumbles to a snore.
Her mending done, she sits and dreams awhile
Then with a sigh, gets up and locks the door;
Turns down the fire and winds and sets the clock,
Then stoops to kiss the thin spot on his head.
He wakes and stirs but waits to hear her say,
"Come, dear, wake up, it's time to go to bed."
And this is love? No glamour? No romance?
Yes, this is love — palace to tenement —
A love surpassing any spoken word
Or touch, an understanding, deep content.

He asked for aid in finding a man, a former husband of a client of his, divorced from her, who had emigrated to Canada. He went on to say the man for some time now had not paid an amount of money for the support of their son and he wanted to find him so that he could get him to keep up this obligation. Mrs. Lymburner said she didn't know what next the Women's Institute would be asked to do.

Mrs. Lymburner reported that a donation of $15 was received in memory of the late Mr. Cliff Daniels, formerly with the Toronto Telegram. Mr. Daniels worked very closely with the Federated Women's Institutes on projects such as the Tely Milk Fund and Radios for needy people. Mrs. Haggerty paid tribute to Mr. Daniels who had said he could always depend on the Women's Institute to carry out a project and she said those in the F.W.I.O. always enjoyed working with him. It was decided to purchase a picture with this donation from the Canadian Artists Series. The picture will hang in the F.W.I.O. office.
