

Marsville "sent a delegation to meet with the local council and the hall committee to discuss the modernization of lavatory facilities in the local community centre."

For their meeting at the "Widows' Home" — a home for elderly women, Grand View and Terrace Hill provided a hot chicken supper and gave each inmate a flowering plant. Oak Hill also provided a full course meal and fresh produce for this home. They put on a musical program at a Rest Home.

Moyle provided lunch on their school's Open House Day during Education Week. This Institute also assisted three bereaved families by serving tea to relatives and friends from a distance following the funerals.

At a benefit euchre, Tranquillity and Fairview raised $150 for a family in need of help.

Tutelo's report says: "The majority of our members are in the seventy to eighty years age group, so our activities now are planned more for fellowship and entertainment than they were fifty years ago. We are entirely within the city and have no success getting young mothers to join as most of them work at least part time and they feel more allegiance to Home and School. Our work includes visiting the shut-ins."

Maple Grove had a "personal shower" for a woman who had lost all her belongings when her home was burned.

Sour Springs on the Brant Indian Reserve held a picnic for the children attending Mohawk Institute who stay at the Institute through the summer vacation.

Middlemarch sent a Visiting Homemaker to a home in the community where she was needed.

Paynes Mills: "On four occasions several members visited local senior citizens on their birthdays, taking a birthday cake, flowers and their own teacups. We also visited a local couple on their sixtieth wedding anniversary."

Selkirk provided entertainment and Christmas gifts for residents of the senior citizens' Home, also remembered a ward of the Children's Aid at Christmas time.

Elsinore members have bought and planted flowering crab apple trees to make the area "lovelier" by centennial year. This branch holds its December meeting in the school as a Christmas social for the community. Families bring food for lunch and the Institute has an auction sale of articles suitable for Christmas gifts.

Mount Hope in Centre Bruce plans to plant flowering crab apple trees on the church grounds.

Tara sponsors a monthly baby clinic, three members assisting the Health Unit at each clinic.

Underwood had a rummage sale and gave the proceeds to the nearby school for retarded children.

Scotch Block, Halton County, bought a historic public school, Ligny, for $3000, for the use of the Institute and the community "with restrictions as to its use for moral values especially." When a member had a sudden bereavement the Institute "went to her aid taking complete charge of her home for three days." Norval helps to support their old school as a community hall.

The Women's Institutes of Simcoe county give two scholarships to 4-H Homemaking Club girls every year. Here the chairman of the Scholarship Committee, Mrs. George Holt, presents the Simcoe County Mrs. Alfred Walt Ontario Women's Institute Scholarship to Edna Orr, and the new Simcoe County Area Ontario Women's Institute Scholarship to Wendy Brewer. Edna has her Provincial Honors in club work and has been active in the Sunday School and Young People's work in her church. Wendy has completed six homemaking club projects and has taken an active part in other school and community clubs. Both girls are now attending Teachers' College.

Limehouse gave two flowering crab apple trees to the school, also a fold-away cot and a wool blanket for the staff room.

Mrs. Gertrude Phillips presenting the award given in her honor by the Nipissing District Women's Institutes to Mrs. E. Johnston of Kipling branch.