

Plainfield sponsored a variety concert to raise funds for the caretaking of an old cemetery.

Diltz and Robinson Read recommended to authorities the installation of highway signs and cutting away brush that obscured the view at a railway crossing. Both recommendations were carried out.

Rainham Centre asked the Roads Committee to put proper signs and white lines at the Rainham Centre corner. This Institute sponsors an annual Christmas Concert and "Carol Sing."

Alvinston entertained the senior citizens club at a dinner and afternoon party which was enjoyed so much that the Institute is considering making it an annual event.

Corunna takes care of the small local cemetery, planting flowers and arranging for the grass cutting and general care, with some help with expenses from the township council and the Horticultural Society.

Port Lambton sponsored a St. John Ambulance demonstration on Water Safety for the whole community with a special invitation to the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides.

Phelps gave land to the municipality for an athletic field. The Institute maintains a hall, a memorial and a public park to provide a place of recreation for the community.

Coldsprings paid for lumber and had teeters made for the park.

Fenella held a Chicken Pie Supper and they report that people outside the community keep inquiring if they are going to have another.

Grafton says: "Following our discussion of a paper on Municipal affairs, we decided to approach our township council about providing tables for the township hall and improving the washrooms. Both of these things have been attended to."

Sunderland: "We discussed Milk in Schools and as a result of our meeting a milk producer took it up and we now have a delivery

Lynne Markle of Ingleside, Stormont County, who was awarded a Dominion Provincial Bursary as well as an Ottawa Citizen (newspaper) award this year. Other recipients of the Citizen award for 1964 were Carol Ann Godard of Dundas County and Dorothy Howes of Glengarry, all active club members with Provincial Honors. Miss Markle will use her bursary in an Arts course at Queen's University, majoring in Psychology, Sociology and Politics.

Marilyn Clarkson was awarded the Peel County Ontario Women's Institute Scholarship for 1964. She completed thirteen projects in Campbell's Cross 4 - H Homemaking Club. She is now taking Nurse's training at Toronto General Hospital.

of milk to our school at seven cents per half pint to those desiring it each day. It is not yet on a free basis."

Gamebridge for their main project of the year bought a Porto Lift for the hospital as a memorial to a member, Mrs. Speedie.

At Tavistock six members of the Institute presented a play. The secretary says "The preparation of the play provided great interest and enjoyment for those taking part and the play was so much enjoyed by the others that another play is planned for this year."

Orrville members answered the roll call at a meeting by supplying a coloring book and crayons to be sent to the children's ward of the hospital.

Battersea engaged volunteers from the pupils of Grades VI, VII and VIII to plant trees in the community field on Arbor Day.

Sydenham worked with the Board of Trade in giving a Senior Citizens' turkey banquet and party and holding a chicken barbecue; and they met with the County council to discuss having a county library. They joined the Legion in a celebration of Remembrance Day and helped the Lions' Club to serve refreshments following their Christmas parade.

Harrowsmith sent a delegation to a meeting of the County Council in support of a County Health Unit. They also arranged a meeting of interested organizations to discuss the possibility of a County Library and Bookmobile.

Comber says: "We sent a letter to the Reeve of our township requesting further action on a County Health Unit. Very recently a Unit has been established."

A carload of members of Good Neighbor Institute go once a month to help at Cedar Springs hospital for retarded children.

Teeswater is working with the Council to build and equip a community kitchen.

Whitechurch sponsored Record Hops and other dances for teenagers and found the young people most appreciative.

Among Shelburne's many contributions to community needs were a surgilift stretcher for