

Mrs. G. R. Lane, F.W.I.O. Provincial Board Director for Simcoe, presents the Dorothy Futchter Ontario Women's Institute Scholarship to Janet Campbell of Guthrie. Janet is in her first year at Macdonald Institute, Guelph University. She has her 4-H Homemaking Club Provincial Honors and has been active in Young People's Church work, the choir and sports.

Alice had a "Friendly Neighbors" program in International night. Some of their own members dressed in national costumes—Dutch, Chinese, Japanese, Scottish, Icelandic and Australian, each spoke of their native country. They also "sang their native songs and everyone joined in."

Snake River in addition to contributing to the International Scholarship and Pennies for Friendship and sponsoring a child through the Save the Children Fund, "sent a bale to UNICEF."

At Waubauskene a clergyman showed slides taken on a nearby Indian Reserve when he was a teacher there. The report says: "The speaker said we needn't go to the Southern States to see discrimination. We should work for better understanding in our own country."

Churchill reports: "At our International meeting a new Canadian from Italy told us about Italian cooking; and our president, who came from Holland, sang a Dutch song and taught us a Dutch game she had played as a girl."

Wellesley reports: "Our December meeting was a special one when a new Canadian member who had received her Canadian Citizenship papers a week before wanted to provide the home, convene the program and provide the lunch. She was thrilled and so were all the members. She had a splendid program and provided a Christmas banquet. Her table was a picture."

At Christmas time Centreville members provide fifty cent gifts, Christmas wrapped to be packed in one box and sent to an Institute in England. The English Institute sends an exchange parcel.

Helena Feasby has Institute links in Queensland, Australia, and Shropshire in England. They sponsor a child in Macao and sent boxes of yarn and books to Institutes in the N.W. Territories.

Pelham and Ridgeville were fortunate in having Canada's Commissioner to the Yukon as a speaker.

At Carry on Institute a native of Holland, now a Canadian citizen and president of a Women's Institute, spoke on the importance of citizenship and the franchise.

Clifford's program on education was given by four men speakers.

For its International meeting, Mosborough had as guest speaker a third year student of Guelph University who had spent the summer in Zambia with Cross-roads Africa. Riverside had the wife of a Guelph University student from India speak on "A Woman's Life in India."

Clyde and Scotts reports: "We had a community resident who escaped from Latvia tell of her trials and tribulations at that time. After hearing her we wondered what we have to grumble about in this land of milk and honey and civil liberty."

At Copetown a speaker from Africa spoke on the problems of African students coming to Canada not knowing our language, having little money and great difficulty in finding rooms.

Most Institutes of North Wentworth report taking charge of a book depot for the county library.

Mary Wilkes, the first Denbigh girl to complete twelve 4-H Homemaking Clubs, received her Provincial Honors certificate at the Lennox and Addington Achievement Day in January. Mary is shown here with her club's exhibit.