

Chesley reports: "Our citizenship convener led a study of the North West Territories. We subscribe to the Consumers' Association of Canada and receive the paper 'Centennial Ontario.' 'Northern Lights' summaries are given at meetings and we have North West Territories pen pals . . . Our branch is a member of the United Nations Association and reviews of 'United Nations in Action' are given as they are received."

Warton had an International Night when the literature of various countries was discussed. Three Canadian books were reviewed: "Harold Wilson," the new book on Pauline Johnson and "Journey Through Russia."

Holyrood's International program had the roll call, "A Father of Confederation"; the topics: "What is a Canadian?" and "Our Responsibilities as Canadians"; and a contest in naming the floral emblems of the Canadian provinces.

Kincardine advises: "Whenever possible, have a native of another country tell of the customs there. We had an address by a well-educated woman from India who is in Canada while her husband is working in a nearby atomic plant." This lady also spoke at Lisburn.

Reid's Corners reports an address by a native of India who spoke on India and his impressions of Canada.

Whitfield had a program on United Nations and a New Canadian spoke on her native land, Holland.

Orangeville had a tape recording from Wroxall Women's Institute in Great Britain describing their Golden Jubilee in 1965.

Nestleton reports: "The convener of our International program is a new Canadian citizen from Holland and she has an insight into citizenship that is refreshing and up-to-date."

At Middlemarch a local high school teacher gave an illustrated lecture on the "Cross Roads Africa" project.

Crystal Springs had an address on Rhodesia by a woman who had lived in that country for years.

Centreville had papers on U-Thant and International Cooperation Year; also a contest in identifying flags of member nations of U.N. Springmount also studied ICY and UN.

Dundalk: "Since our new A.C.W.W. President is a native of India, we had a paper on 'India and the life of Mrs. Aroti Dutt.'"

Annan reports: "The convener of Citizenship and Education reviewed the story of Unesco Coupon 367 and as a result a second donation was made."

Kilsyth had an address on Kenya by a missionary.

At a meeting at North Derby a new Canadian explained the process of getting her citizenship papers.

Clavering had a roll call, "A duty of Canadians as world citizens" and the motto, "World Affairs Are Our Affairs."

Chapman has an exchange program with a Women's Institute (or Country Women's Association) in Australia.

At Tiger Dunlop's international meeting the speaker was a native of Turkey who displayed

Sheila Craig, 1966 winner of Simcoe County Ont. Women's Institute scholarship. Sheila has completed twelve 4H Homemaking Club projects. She graduated from high school with a standing of over 80% and at the same time participating in the school glee club, gym club, hockey team and library club, and was a field day champion; also a swimming instructor. She plays the violin, piano and organ, is assistant church organist and active in the Young Peoples organization. Sheila is attending McMaster University, majoring in French.

articles from her homeland; and a woman from Holland sang in her native tongue.

Historical Research

South Tarentorus reports: "After a discussion on erecting a historical cairn, stone was retrieved from a historical building which was being torn down. The stone has been stored, waiting the decision by the Legion as to where they will build. Then the cairn will be erected on the same site.

At Cainsville a member had a copy of the Ladies' Home Journal of the year 1893.

Willa Rip who was awarded the Brant County Ont. Women's Institute Bursary for 1966. As a child Willa came to Canada with her parents from Holland. She has been active in 4H Homemaking Clubs and in church work, completed Grade XIII in high school this summer and is now taking nurse's training in Brantford General Hospital.