

F.W.I.O. was asked to submit 12 names and six were appointed by the Department of Agriculture and Food to attend Consumer's section of Food Council. Mrs. Stanley Bride and Mrs. Austin Zoeller, board members on Food Council presented recommendations to the Board which were approved, namely that persons holding office of president of F.W.I.O. and convener of Home Economics be members of Food Council and that the other four members plus two alternates be chosen regionally from acting members of F.W.I.O. board directors.

International Scholarship

Last year three young women were sent to Mysore, India for a short course in food technology and preservation and then returned to their home country to put their knowledge into practice and raise the standard of living there.

The International Scholarship committee recommended (1) that the story of the International Scholarship and the pictures of these three ladies be placed in the provincial Tweeds-contributed $3,200.00 to Canada Mysore project. Centennial project of erection of century farm signs has proved successful.

Miss D. C. Hunter, Stroud, receives the Adelaide Hoodless Memorial Scholarship from Mrs. J. D. MacLachlan, University of Guelph. Another winner, Miss J. M. Glover, was absent when the picture was taken.

Junior Institute Report

"Junior Institute programs relate primarily to local clubs," explained Miss Charlotte Davis reporting on junior activities to F.W.I.O. board members. At county and provincial levels, activities are amalgamated with Junior Farmers.

Guest speakers provided varied discussion on such topics as antique glassware, making Christmas candles and chocolates, decorating, conservation, and crossroads Africa.

Projects in keeping with their motto, "Self Help and Community Betterment" included stuffing toys for retarded children, supplying food and gifts to needy families, etc.

Lee Homestead Report

Mrs. Russell Wise, chairman of committee appointed in 1964, reviewed the activities of this committee who have been exploring the possibility of preserving Lee Homestead at Stoney Creek. On July 23rd the committee met with the historic sites board and the executive of the Winona Women's Institute and determined that a historic sites plaque will be erected at the Lee Homestead combining the two requests.

F.W.I.O. board members granted permission to this committee to continue their investigation regarding the Lee Homestead.

Macdonald Institute Expansion

Mrs. Everett Small, Mrs. L. Trivers, Miss Helen McKercher are a committee to meet with representatives of the Guelph University development fund to discuss this project further.

Miss L. E. Black, Stoney Creek, accepts the Stoney Creek Women's Institute Bursary from the President, Mrs. C. Nash.

muir History Book (2) that this year F.W.I.O. send three more people at an approximate cost of seven to eight hundred dollars to Mysore to be trained similar to last year.

Junior Farmers Report

Mrs. T. A. Farrell, Junior Board Director, reviewed activities of the Junior Farmers' Association which included Toronto Conference on January 8; Leadership Training Schools in February; Provincial Conference in Guelph in March and also a Curling Bonspiel; Drama Festival in April; Field Days in June and July with Provincial Field Day in August and Provincial Leadership Camp in September.

The Ontario Junior Farmers' Association has