

Ridge Worker's Branch presented a set of eight reference books of Canada to the Ridgeway and District Centennial Library.

Peel District—held a fashion show, at which many old costumes were on display. Included in the display was a bathing costume of heavy material, with long black stockings; and a costume for the tennis player. Proceeds from the fashion show will be used for a Peel County Museum.

Highland Park Branch—held an antique display showing articles from seventy-five to over a hundred years of age. Articles included Valentines, wedding announcements, and a replica of the boat Huronic. The origin of each article was told by the member who brought it.

Bethany Branch — are supplying park benches for the park at the Cenotaph in Bethany and are sponsoring a bus trip to Expo for members and their husbands. Molesworth Branch—supplied material and pictures from their Tweedsmuir Village History for the preparation of a History of the town of Molesworth in Grey County as a Centennial project. Consecon Branch—held a Centennial tea and antique show at which was displayed a map of Prince Edward County showing pictures of industries active in 1863. West Oxford District sponsored a Maple Syrup Festival, raising Four Hundred Dollars to be used for other Centennial projects. Zurich Branch—held an old-fashioned box social with the auctioneer dressed in a top hat and using a brass-tipped walking stick. Kakabeka Falls Branch held a Bobbie Burns tea with the members dressed in Centennial Costume. West Lorne Branch chose the theme "The Art of Quilting" for a meeting. On display was a bedspread made from home spun wool, which is still in use.

Donegal Branch—members entertained their husbands at a dinner. The ladies wore Centennial Costumes and had made old style costumes for their husbands to wear.

North Dufferin District held a Centennial Cup and Saucer Tea, attended by three hundred guests. A candle was lit by a District Director as the story was told of the entry of each province into Confederation. A cup and saucer, with the Centennial symbol in gold, was presented to each guest as a souvenir of the occasion.

Kent Centre Branch—held an old-fashioned "quilting bee" Money raised from the sale of the quilt will be donated to funds for Northwest Territories Women's Institutes for the purchase of craft materials for Indian children.

Fenelon Falls Branch—commissioned a Fenelon Falls artist to paint a picture of the gorge below the falls. The picture was presented to the 1967 town council.

Mrs. M. V. Kidd, R.R. 1, Nipissing, President of North Parry Sound District, cutting the Anniversary Cake, when Coldwater Branch celebrated the founding of the Women's Institutes of Ontario.

Beamsville Branch held a Centennial tea where members dressed in Centennial Costumes served hot fritters and maple syrup; homemade bread and butter, small homemade tea biscuits and old-fashioned sugar cookies.

Lakefield Branch—made a Centennial Quilt consisting of blocks showing the flowers of each Province of Canada, the centre having the Women's Institute crest and wild flowers of Canada; and bearing one hundred and ninety seven autographs. The quilt was sold and a refrigerator and drapes were purchased for the Centennial room in the renovated Town Hall.

Clifford Branch—had a speaker to tell of Research in tracing a family tree and the study of Geneology.

Greenville Branch—assisted the Township Centennial committee in holding an Antique Show by serving tea, loaning antiques, setting up displays and acting as guards. They presented a cheque for $1000 to the Community Parks Board for building a Pavilion as a Centennial Project.